

Phylactery of Faithfulness

(from the 1e Dungeon Master's Guide)

This item is usable only by clerics and their subclasses.

There are no means to learn what function this device performs until it is worn. The wearer of a phylactery of faithfulness will be aware of any action or item that will adversely affect his or her alignment and standing with his deity. This information is acquired prior to performing the action or becoming associated with such an item, if a moment is taken to contemplate the action. This phylactery must be worn normally by a cleric, of course.
