Some screenshots feature an account using the LuigiLover30 tag, which is the older username of Fizz. Fizz had a previous discord account that he had lost access to due to a technological reset. Both accounts have the same Reddit account linked, and can be seen here:

Some screenshots will have Fizz's pfp blurred, this is due to them containing mature content or content that breaks Google Doc's TOS.

QUICK SUMMARY

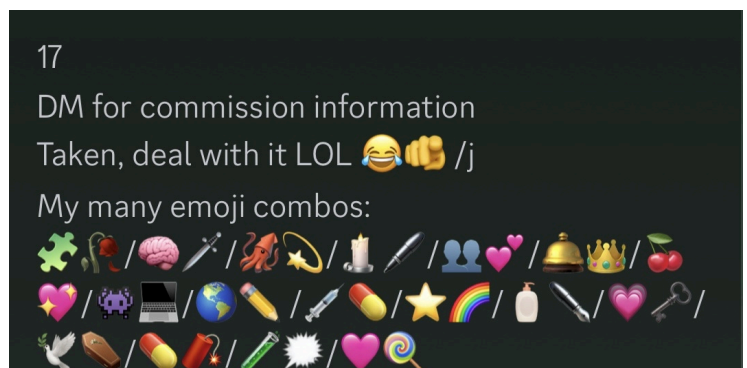

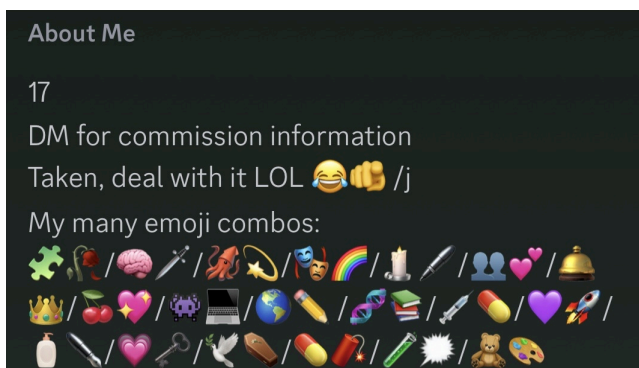

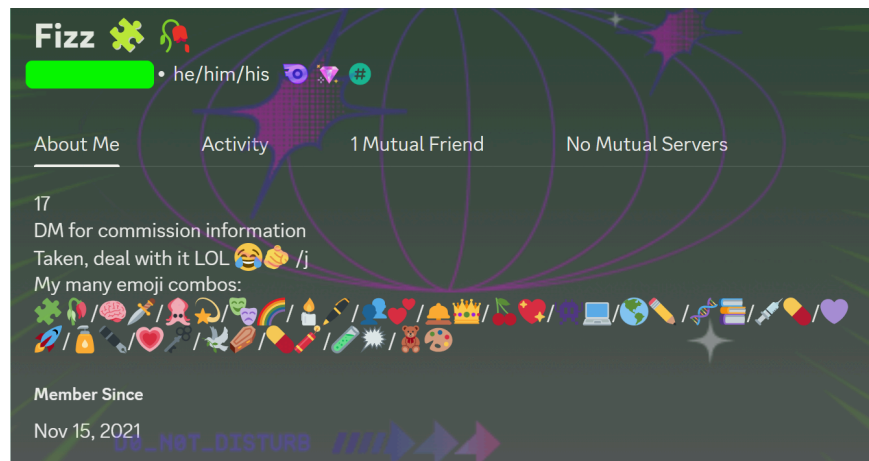

The user Bubblefizzzzz, who we're going to call Fizz for the sake of simplicity, supports the creation of artwork starring harmful paraphilias for the sake of fetish content, including rape and incest. He also actively creates rape content in the form of roleplays with other people. He also showed no signs of being worried when a friend of 3 years was close to ending their own life, and never asked them how they were doing. He also shows signs of narcissism (Not to be confused with NPD), is manipulative, and is willing to send others after his close friends in order to gain sympathy.

This document is a work in progress.

Supporting Proship Content

NOTICE: I understand that there are people with paraphilias (harmful or safe) that are seeking help to stop their attractions, and they should be helped in their quest to heal and move on if they wish to do so. I, however, do not support people who want to fuel their harmful paraphilias or wish to fulfill their desires in the real world.

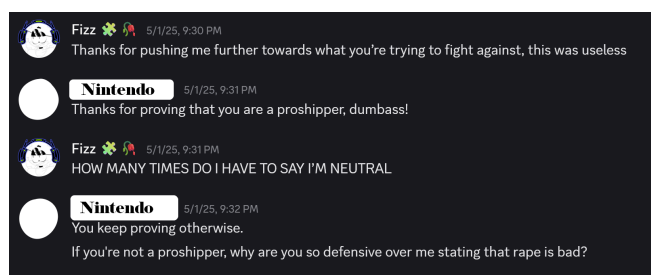

Fizz is a proud supporter of profiction and proshipping content. He believes that as long as it is fictional, people are allowed to be attracted to whoever and whatever they please, whenever and wherever they want. He will bring this up as often as he can in conversations about shipping, and has defended people for shipping people as young as 19 with men in their 30s. He used to openly support proshipping on his Discord, but has since removed the emoji combos after the release of the 1.0 version of the document.

Here is a masterlist of the emoji combos for convenience.

ex-antiship/mind break/Attraction to monsters?/Anti on main, Pro on alt/
Spiteshipper/selfshipper?/butler x master/
twincest/chronically online comshipper-

Fizz has also made it a broad habit to insult 'antishippers' in any way he can, usually grouping them all together with 'bad antishippers' he finds. This is similar behavior to people defaulting to transphobia by assuming all transgender people are weird or disturbing about their gender identity, or are using being transgender as an excuse to do certain unacceptable things.

Fizz will only support your paraphilias as long as you meet all his conditions in order to be one of his friends. As soon as you break one of them, he will judge you relentlessly for them. He'll claim that you are disgusting for the thing he said you had the right to do days prior.

Fizz had a character that he used to create rape porn with child character and romanticized the idea of his characters being pedophiles.

His claims of not supporting lol1/sh0t@con or çub art also fall flat on their face. In an unfortunately unrecorded voice call, he stated that çub art is “alright as long as they’re not infants”. That means that he is okay with csem content as long as the children in it are between 3-18 years of age, although he prefers children in the 12-16 age range.

He had a conversation with me on DeviantArt. I made a post calling him out for falsely claiming Nintendo was a pedophile, and pointed out things he has done that made his claims hypocritical. Notice how quick he is to make himself seem like a victim. I’ve only had a single conversation with him and only made one post about his behavior, I never harassed him and I never will.

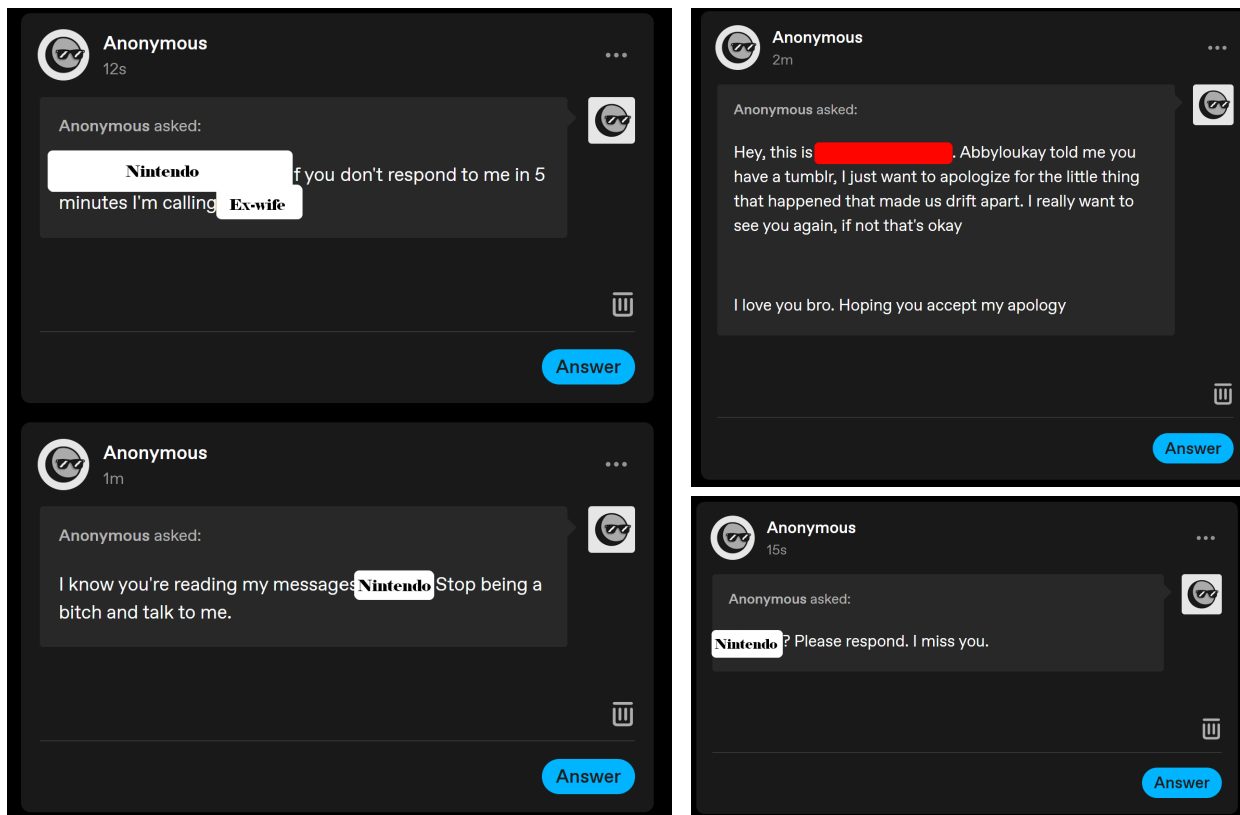

I archived the conversation in case his actions cause him to get banned from DeviantArt. The conversation had to be archived in 3 links. Please note that the status post was edited to contain a link to the google document.

Endangering the welfare of a child due to have a grudge with said child’s parent(s)

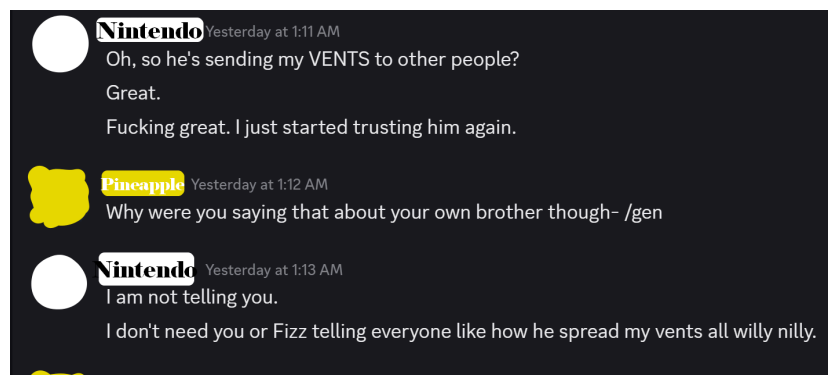

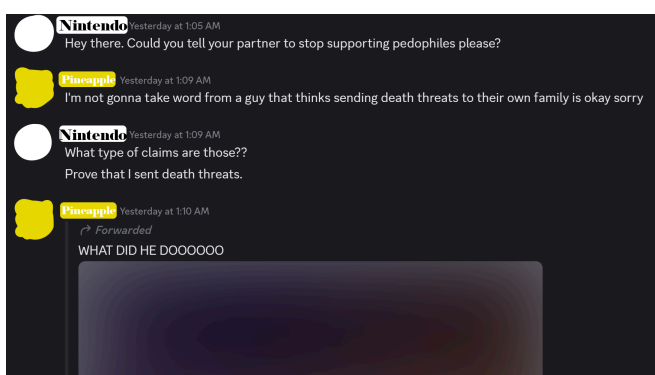

After the 1.1 version of the document was released, he was contacted by Nintendo’s brother, who is a convicted pedophile that is actively trying to stalk Nintendo in order to have access to his infant daughter. He assumed that Nintendo didn’t like him because he was a proshipper, despite Nintendo telling Fizz and everyone else in his friend group that his brother is a pedophile and that they shouldn’t contact him.

Nintendo’s brother drew gift art for Fizz in order to stroke his pride and win him over, which worked. Fizz willingly gave Nintendo’s brother all the socials he knew Nintendo had, even though he was told several times not to. Here are screenshots of proof that he told Nintendo’s brother about a tumblr account they have. The brother’s username is being censored because it is not safe to interact with him.

He also sent Nintendo's private vents to at least 1 other person who hadn't seen these vents, we assume he sent them to more people due to the fact he lied directly to Nintendo and his other friend's faces several times. He also called Nintendo disgusting and pathetic behind their back due to Nintendo's hatred towards their brother.

NOTICE: Pineapple and Fizz claim that MC has sent his family death threats. He has not. In fact, he is no-contact with them. He also hasn't made any death threats in the private vents, and I will not show said vents due to them being very personal. Another thing I'd like to note is that Fizz was told that Nintendo's brother was a pedophile several times before Nintendo contacted Pineapple, hoping that Pineapple would help him get Fizz to stop talking to him since he is still legally a minor at the time he was contacting him. Instead of helping, Pineapple made Nintendo look like he was in the wrong. Nintendo was simply trying to defend himself and minors from a pedophile, and shouldn't have been reprimanded.

Fizz had to be threatened with the action of having his family be told what he did in order to admit to sending the socials, he originally used the excuse of forgetting despite being told the same day not to do what he did, then he quickly backtracked on that as well. I am unsure if his family was told or not.

I did make a post about this on DeviantArt, which I will admit was immature of me. I made the post out of rage and distress, Nintendo is my partner and Fizz just gave a convicted pedophile access to both Nintendo and our child. You can find a link to the post here.

Harassment

After Nintendo vented in a server about certain aspects of his life, Fizz went to a famous Youtuber, Mushroom Girl (who will be referred to as MG for the rest of the doc), and told her that they sent him sexually explicit messages. This caused MG to go after Nintendo on Tumblr and threaten to make a video about him and the doc. This led to a very long vc with an angry Green Mario, an extremely distressed Dr. Thunder, and Fizz. Dr. Thunder stated that while in the call, Green Mario had to tell him several times to stop messaging MG, they assume that he made false harassment accusations.

NOTICE: Scolding a child for heinous actions is not harassment.

Recently, Nintendo has been getting spammed messages on a lot of his socials with the false claims Fizz made about him, some people sent him death threats, some sent him threats against his child, and some even threatened to sexually assault and rape him.

Pushing Fetishes onto Others

NOTICE: I would like to start this off by saying there is nothing wrong with having a fetish or kink. I am not slandering others based on what 18+ material they use in private for their own entertainment. Most fetishes and kinks are okay for consenting parties over 18 to enjoy and share with others in the appropriate spaces. I do not condone harassing others with fetishes or for their fetishes. This user has used their fetishes and fetish material against other people, either with or without their knowledge and most likely without proper consent.

Fizz has always pushed his fetishes onto other people, either in the form of roleplaying or adding it to his own and other people's character lore. He'll make sure to weave it into the lore so deep that it is unable to be retconned, or is at least extremely difficult to.

Rape Fetish

Ever since 2019-2020, Fizz has had an obsession with rape.

He spends weeks at a time doing roleplays with the user we call Pineapple from 10 PM-12 AM to 4-5 AM, typically doing 3-4 scenarios a day. All these scenarios end up turning into rape, Fizz initiates the rape in most of the scenarios. Note that Pineapple is a minor and Fizz is only a couple months away from being 18. If you're worried about me leaking his age, I did not. He has it plastered all over his social media.

He also has the tendency to do copious amounts of r-pe roleplay with Pineapple. And by copious I mean they would roleplay for weeks on end bouncing from character to character. He seems relationships (like one with his weird bug thing and Green Mario termite-inspired little lady) 'wholesome' despite the pain they inevitably cause because the big woman's husband by force took her outside to touch grass for a millisecond.

It has been confirmed that Fizz would force Pineapple to make the character's they control in the roleplays grope, rape, and violate other characters. Pineapple would comply with these orders out of fear that Fizz would get mad at them and lash out. Fizz would use this against them later on.

 Pineapple 11/27/2024 1:43 AM
I tried to tell him we could do it in another server but he tried to make the very next one sexual which I had to diverge

 Pineapple 11/27/2024 3:01 AM

 Green Mario 11/27/2024 3:01 AM
That's understandable

 Pineapple 11/27/2024 3:02 AM
How did you get him to stop
He keeps asking even if I don't want it to be

 Green Mario 11/27/2024 3:03 AM
I'm blunt with him when he makes me upset, but since you're sensitive to him screaming at you he might make you fold pretty fast
He's going to throw a tantrum no matter what, it's just what he does when he doesn't get his way.
He used to do that with me to, but over time I got numb to it... Which isn't really a good thing but, eh

 Green Mario 11/27/2024 1:44 AM
I'm guessing he is?

 Pineapple 11/27/2024 1:44 AM
Yeah

Fizz also has no sympathy for making people uncomfortable with these scenarios, and doesn't try to feign it either. The user Green Mario left the server after not being able to tolerate the rape roleplays before. Fizz and Pineapple only noticed their disappearance after two days. While Pineapple gave Green Mario a formal apology, Fizz simply apologizes that Green Mario had to see it instead of apologizing for making them uncomfortable.

Censored due to friend nickname 11/3/2024 10:39 PM

I noticed you left

Pineapple already told me why, but I'm sorry you had to witness that Fizz would continue to pressure Pineapple to do more rape fetish roleplays, which made Green Mario and another user called Dr. Thunder leave the server.

When confronted about his behavior, Fizz showed few signs of changing, before almost completely removing the rape aspect of a very rape-heavy character, which meant tangling the lore of multiple characters, including other users' characters. He has only changed one character as of writing this, and shows no signs of changing any other characters, but is very adamant about making the singular character as anti-rape and anti-sex as possible.

Incest Fetish

Fizz has displayed an intense sexual interest in incest, beginning in a Countryhumans fanclub server, where he and Pineapple would often have original character siblings forcefully sleep with one another. The two roped Dr. Thunder and Green Mario into some incestuous scenarios as well. Dr. Thunder was already struggling with being part of the proshipping community at one point due to being impressionable in the past, and was unable to tell that this was wrong at the time.

Fizz and Pineapple would go through many incestuous situations using a humanization of the country Germany and The Third Reich, often times having Germany be raped by his perceived nazi father. It even ended with Germany and The Third Reich having a son together using science-fiction levels of technology named Heiner.

For a short period of time, he had the 'secretly ships incest' emoji combination on his profile, indicating to those who know what they mean that he openly supports these types of relationships in media. He had the 'twincest' emoji combination as of writing this, but has since changed his About Me on Discord to only contain 'Help.' Screenshots of the emoji combos are in Supporting Proship Content.

About Me

Help

Disability Fetish

Fizz has an odd gravitation towards characters with disabilities. He gravitates the most towards invisible disabilities, claiming he cannot draw physical disabilities despite having done so in the past.

He constantly screams about how he is portraying this disability correctly, but he has very little knowledge on medical conditions and does little to no research before slapping a condition onto one of his characters. He also doesn't know anything about medical equipment, and misnames them constantly.

DID (Dissociative Identity Disorder)

Fizz made a version of Hero Cookie from the Cookie Run series that has DID. The alters were the usual stereotypical ones, excluding the little due to Fizz's hatred of the agere community. One alter is a serial killer that is connected to FNaF... for some odd reason... and tends to front often when Fizz gets tired of "boring" roleplays (roleplays without extreme violence and rape in them, I have a suspicion that he might also enjoy guro content. Keyword, SUSPICION.)

Two of the alters are seemingly relatively normal, one of which seemingly has a knack for machinery, another has a knack for robotics for a similar reason as the serial killer alter, but without the copious amounts of violence.

He also has an alter that is hypersexual, is constantly erect, and suffers from premature ejaculation. More on that topic in the next section.

[Screenshots of this will be added in a later revision.]

Premature Ejaculation

Fizz has an obsession with characters that suffer from erectile dysfunction, specifically with premature ejaculation. He loves it when the condition is physically painful, and uses the stereotype that the men will ejaculate as soon as any stimulus is applied to the penis. He tends to use them in "milking" roleplays that are, unsurprisingly, nonconsensual most of the time.

Down Syndrome

One of Fizz's characters, who is mentioned in the incest fetish section of the document, has down syndrome. Fizz never drew this character's facial features correctly, giving them an able bodied person's proportions besides a lazy eye and an underbite.

This character is yet another stereotype. They are infantilized to a disgusting level, acting babyish and “needing” to be treated like one as well. Their favorite thing to eat is “Appelsass” (Apple Sauce) and he had the mental capacity of a toddler. They were also best friends with one of Green Mario’s characters, who is a lobotomy patient that only acts the way he does due to it being the only way his partner (another one of Fizz’s characters) would pay attention to him. He heavily used Green Mario’s character to portray them.

[Screenshots will be added in a later revision.]

Fizz would often use the character’s infant-like behavior in order to use him in his rape roleplays. He has a history of using infant-like/infant-proportioned characters in rape roleplays due to how easy it is to manipulate them, which is one of my reasons for believing that he secretly enjoys lol/sh0t@ content.

I’d like to end this section by saying that people with mental disabilities, no matter how severe, should NEVER be treated like children. They are adults, they know that you’re not treating them like the grown man/woman/person they are. Be respectful of people who are not as cognitive as you, treat them their age and treat them with the respect they deserve.

Leaving Suicidal Friend to Die

On January 27th, 2025, One of Fizz’s close friends, who I’m going to refer to as Nintendo for privacy reasons, was dangerously close to ending their life after having a mental break caused by what friends and loved ones can only assume was an extreme panic attack or autistic meltdown.

Nintendo recently learned about something life altering, and shared it with their friends hoping to gauge their reactions in order to figure out how they should react. Fizz reacted with no enthusiasm, nor tried to feign it. Another one of Fizz’s friends also didn’t react with much excitement, but at least tried to sound happy. This on top of them already doubting their worth due to other medical conditions caused them to spiral.

This happened during a voice call, which Fizz ended as soon as Nintendo said that they were close to killing themselves under the guise of heading to bed at around 3 AM. For extra context, Fizz typically stays up until 4 or 5 AM, usually indulging in roleplaying.

Fortunately, two of their other friends were able to get in touch with him. He only ended up having to get some stitches for a couple cuts on his arm.

These two friends stayed up until 7:30 AM so they could make sure that they were okay. They chatted with their partner and tried to help keep them calm while they got their stitches done. They're still checking in on Nintendo multiple times a day, and try to make sure he's on a road to recovery.

Fizz has not once tried to reach out to Nintendo. After almost a couple days of not getting any messages from him, Nintendo decided to reach out to Fizz to try to have a simple conversation, Fizz appeared to have acted repulsed the entire time, and clearly didn't want to have the conversation. This caused another spiral, and on January 28th, Nintendo ended up back in the hospital. Unlike before, they simply said their goodbyes to one of their friends then went offline.

This friend and another one of their companions, the same two that stayed up with them last time, started doing everything in their power to contact Nintendo and their partner. Luckily they were able to get in contact with the partner and Nintendo was taken back to the hospital, fortunately the only injuries they had were a bruised windpipe, some scrapes, and a bloody nose.

They stayed up with Nintendo again and refused to go offline until they knew he was okay.

Fizz has been sleeping earlier and earlier since, and has been avoiding doing anything with any friends other than Pineapple, or without the presence of Pineapple. He has even flat out refused to interact with some of his friends in favor of only interacting with Pineapple.

He has since falsely accused Nintendo of being a pedophile after getting into a debate of Fizz's untreated (and actively fueled) rape and incest phobias, and actively sought out to defend those he detested in favor of calling him 'disgusting.'

He pushed Nintendo into another hospital visit where he had to have more stitches due to Fizz's gross negligence, insisting he was correct simply because he thought Nintendo was disgusting and wrong. He was perturbed by Nintendo assuming he was lying with his apology, but was caught lying shortly afterwards about giving an abuser access to their victim.

[This part of the document is ongoing, and will be updated as needed]

Unhealthy Narcissistic Behavior

NOTICE: I understand that people with Narcissistic Personality Disorder are not bad people on default due to their condition. This is meant to point out that the user shows signs of the more stereotypical behavior that is associated with the concept of narcissism. I understand that people with NPD do struggle with their mental health on a daily basis, but a potential disability is not a good excuse for being an awful person. (Before you attempt to strike me down, the author of this document has a mental and physical disability to some degree.)

Addictive Personality

Fizz has a bad habit of becoming unhealthily addicted to things, these range from food items (coffee & sweet tea) to visual media (pornography & commentary YouTube videos) to even video games (Dandy's World & Lego StarWars).

He has the tendency to skip sleeping whenever there was a new update in Dandy's World so he could acquire the new toon before anyone else could. He'd also force his partner to play with him while they are in school, this resulted in them flunking several classes. He also keeps them up to fuel his rape fetish, whether it be in publicity of a friends-only server, or in the privacy of their own DMs.

Superiority Complex

Fizz has shown several signs of having a superiority complex. These signs include, but are not limited to.

- Attention to appearance (specifically in his art)
 - Unwillingness to listen to others
- Pushing others who contradict him away
- Mood swings caused from being contradicted

He must be better than all his peers in any shape or form, this includes

I am unaware if this is a coping mechanism for something else or if that's simply how he acts. Either way I hope that he gets the help he needs and rightfully deserves.

Shaming Others for Being "Less Than" Him

Fizz has a habit of viewing everyone that he doesn't think are as good as him as lesser beings. Because of this he will ignore, taunt, or smear anyone he doesn't think is worthy of his praise.

He has constantly shamed people with diaper kinks, or people who are a part of the AB/DL community. This has decreased since he became friends with Nintendo and expanded his knowledge on the subject. He would specifically use an image of Hero Cookie in a diaper in a lot of jokes about how his version of Hero Cookie had urinary incontinence. This has since been retconned after Green Mario stated that he should probably wear incontinence pants after getting tired of having to have her characters clean up piss puddles in every roleplay they did that included him. I am unsure if he has gone back to shaming people with these traits due to no longer being friends with Nintendo.

Unfortunately we are unable to include that many screenshots

[Screenshots will be added in a later revision.]

Shaming Other Artists for Not Being “Good”

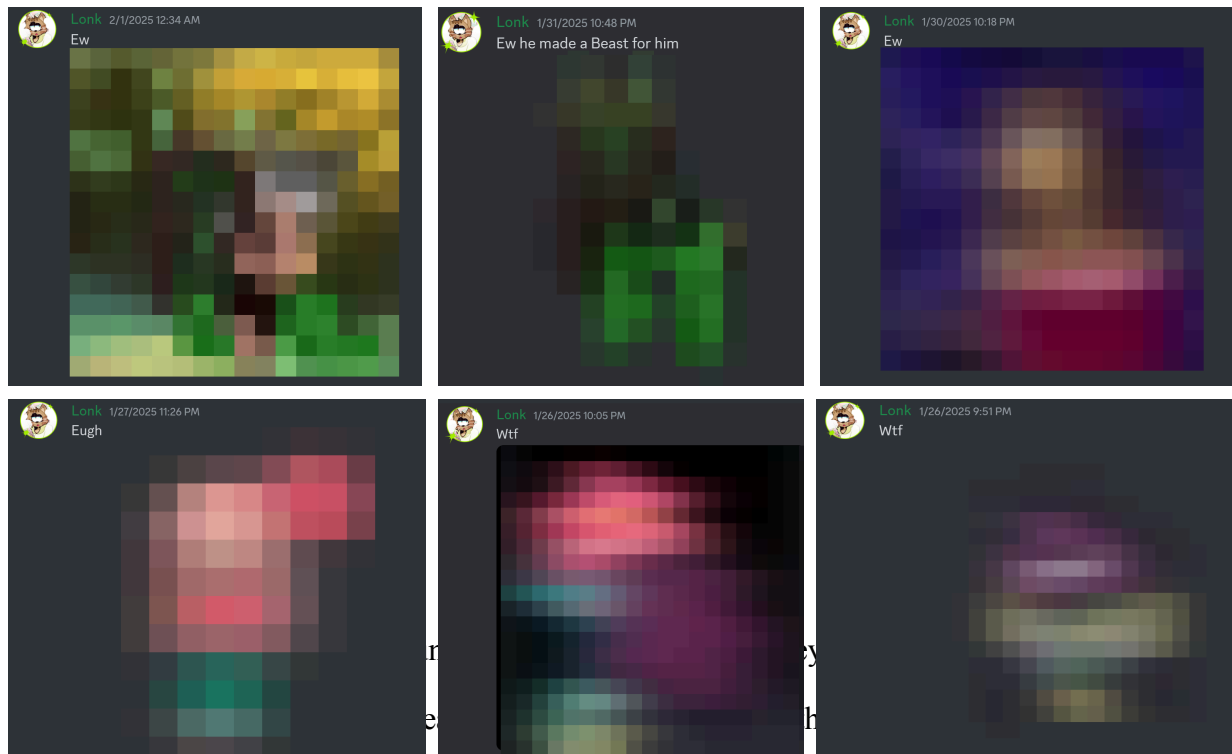

Fizz is known for shaming beginner artists, and calls their creations ‘AIDS [species]’. I will note that Green Mario coined the term, but it was clearly in a joking and non-serious manner. Fizz took the term and twisted it to be an insult.

So far I discovered that he does this with two different people, more might be found in the future

Kiddo

Kiddo is a child that Fizz and Pineapple both actively shame to the point there is a channel in a Discord server they share that is primarily for insulting Kiddo’s artwork. He mostly says the words “Ew” and “Wtf” to their artwork, and only gives constructive criticism to people he wants to keep around.

NOTICE: The artwork has been blurred in order to keep Kiddo anonymous.

NOTICE: Pineapple’s claims of Kiddo stalking them are FALSE, as it appears to be the other way around. Pineapple is getting information about Kiddo from Fizz so the two can bully the child behind their back in Pineapple’s private server. [Please note that Kiddo is NOT an innocent child, as they have their own controversies involving the group. However, please remember that Kiddo is still a relatively young child on the internet at the age of 13 or 14 years old, and could be subject to change. Kiddo committed these supposed bad actions while being 11 or 12, and cannot be held to that same standard as they get older.]

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:43 PM
I'm not sure why, but you guys only commenting "ew" on  artwork makes me feel bad for him more than anything.

 Pineapple 2/1/2025 11:44 PM
He's actively stalking me I think I have the right to say "ew" tbh

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:45 PM
It still makes me feel bad. It makes me feel like I'm witnessing something I shouldn't be.
I mean, you guys are pratically bullying him at this point.  but how would you feel if someone did this to you?

 Pineapple 2/1/2025 11:46 PM
I've actually been on the receiving end
Yeah it hurts

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:48 PM
I've personally never had someone talk to me behind my back. At least not that I know of. But I can imagine that it hurts a lot.
I'm sorry that happened, by the way.

 Pineapple 2/1/2025 11:48 PM
I'm over it it's good

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:48 PM
But, if you had that happen and you know that pain why throw that onto someone else? It doesn't make sense to me.
Sorry for the shitty grammar, brain vomiting.

 Pineapple 2/1/2025 11:49 PM

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:51 PM

 Pineapple 2/1/2025 11:52 PM
Ah I see

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:52 PM
We're just bullying a child for being a child at this point, which to me is wrong.

 Pineapple 2/1/2025 11:53 PM

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:55 PM

 Lonk 2/1/2025 11:55 PM
I just think it's funny

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:55 PM
He doesn't need harassment and bullying, he needs someone that will gently guide him into being a better person.

 Pineapple 2/1/2025 11:56 PM
I tried but he was actively manipulating me

 Lonk 2/1/2025 11:56 PM
We're trying to guide him but that hasn't worked

 @Lonk I just think it's funny

 Nintendo 2/1/2025 11:56 PM
That's.... not a good thing.
But you do you. I'm not gonna scold you for being a big bad bully.

Fizz has also done the same thing to Pineapple, although he said more than just ‘ew’ and ‘wtf/wth’.

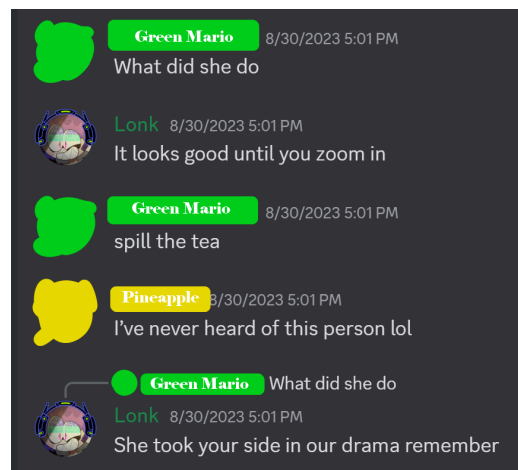

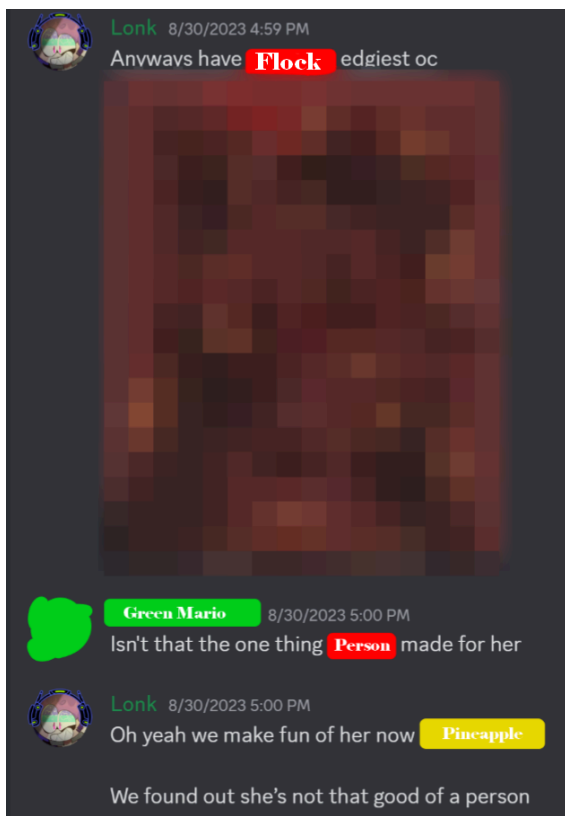

Fizz clearly thinks that shaming other people’s art is funny, and even though he has admitted that this is a bad thing he has done nothing to fix his behavior. Nintendo has called him out on this behavior several times, and has gone as far as contacting Kiddo so they both could confront him.

I am unsure if Fizz has apologized to Kiddo for these actions.

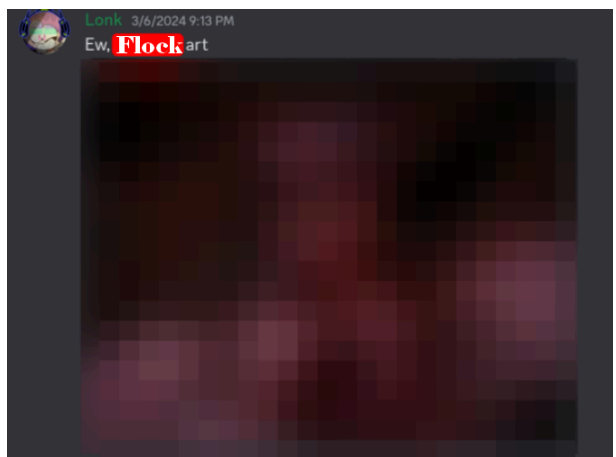

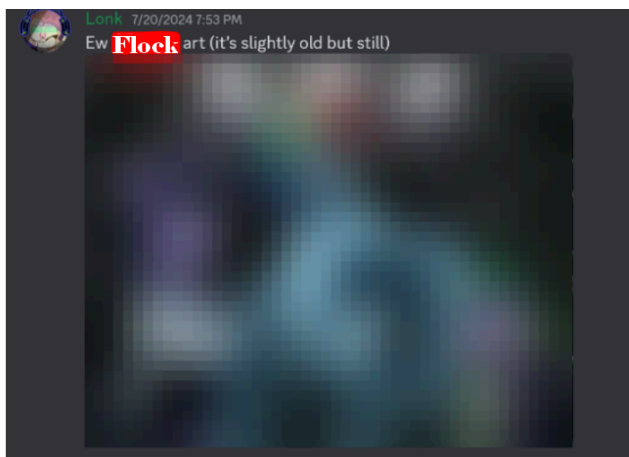

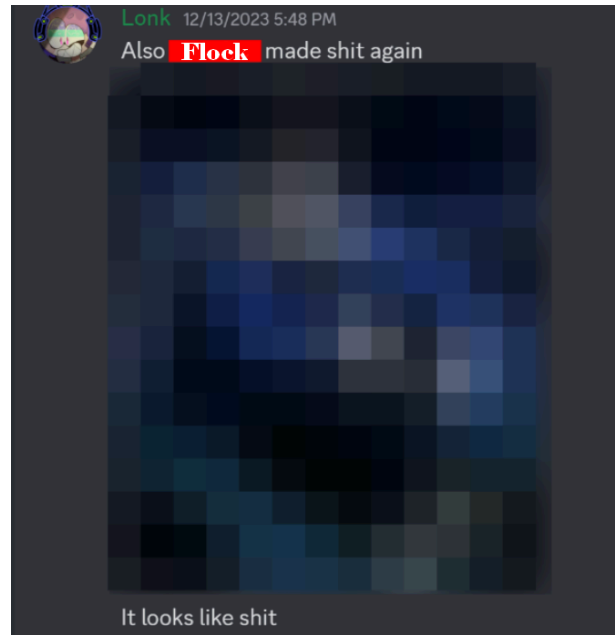

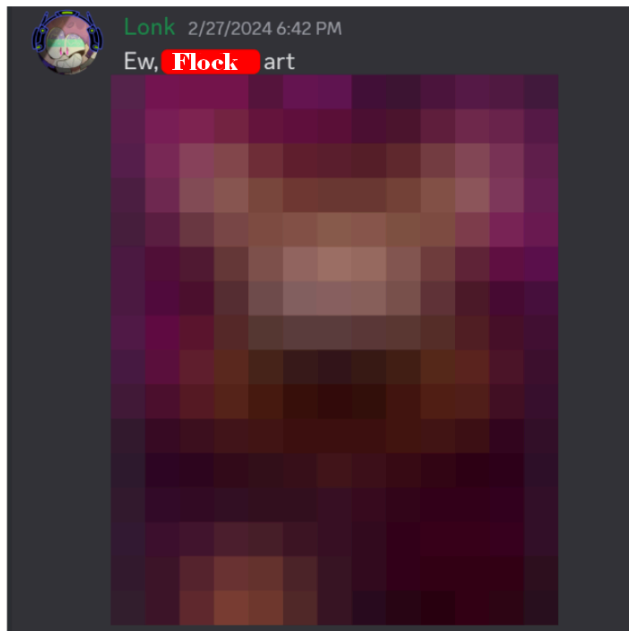

Flock

He had done the same to a very popular artist, who I’m simply going to call Flock. His reason for shaming Flock’s art isn’t because it’s inherently a beginner’s work, it’s out of pettiness.

Fizz got banned from Flock’s server due to the events that happen in the Green Mario section of Smear-Campaigns. He still holds a grudge for not winning the fight and facing the consequences of his actions.

He did the same thing he did to Kiddo's art with Flock. Again, a lot of it is redundant. He'd stalk the announcement channel of Flock's server so he could jump on the opportunity to slander their artwork as soon as it was posted.

He has since been banned from the server again, although Green Mario was also kicked as well. I am unsure why Green Mario was kicked, but I assume it's due to their friendship. I would advise against joining this server if you know who the artist is, as it is an unsafe environment, containing a lot of problematic behavior out in the open. The mod team is biased against 'aggressors,' or people defending themselves in harmful situations.

Forcing others to “suffer” with him

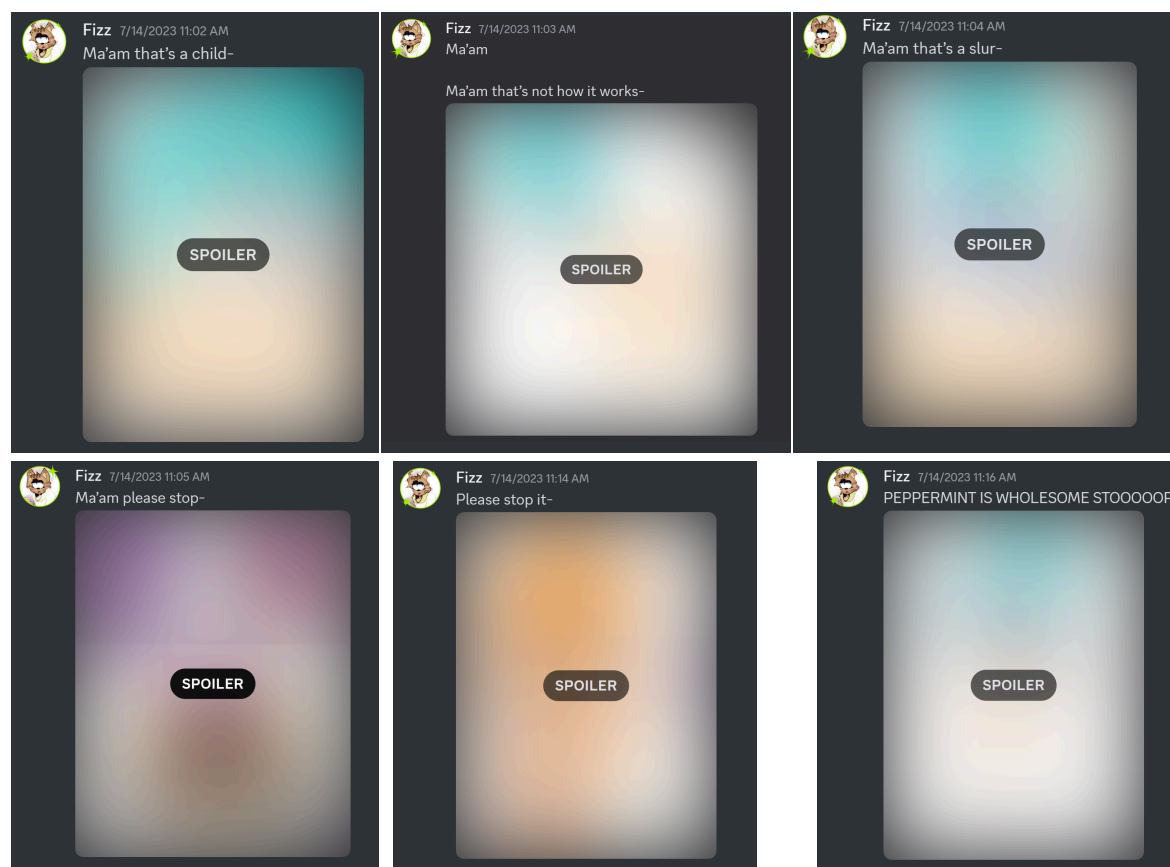

Fizz likes to butt his nose into things he shouldn't, and as a result he's seen a lot of gross content.

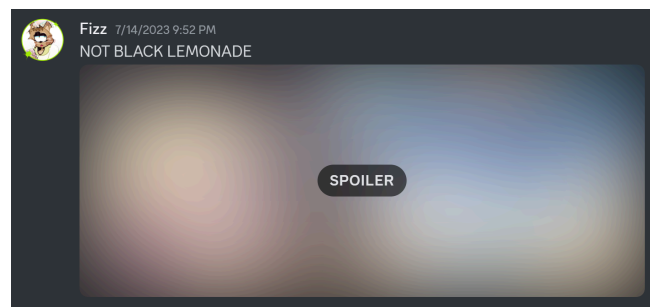

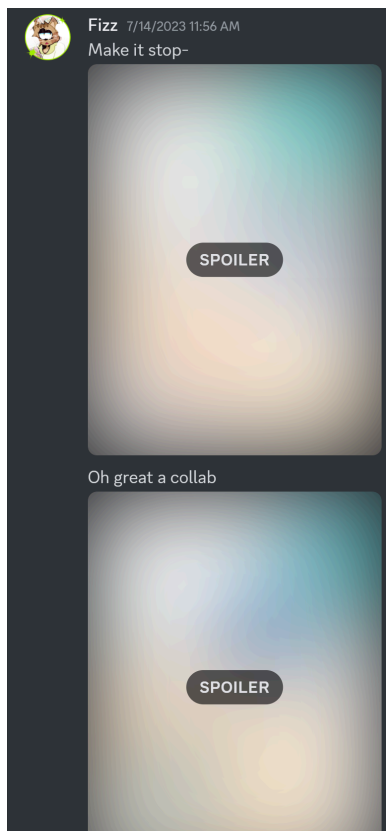

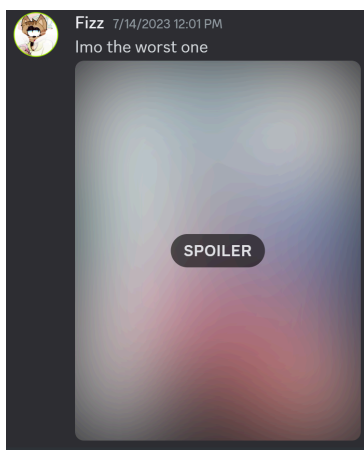

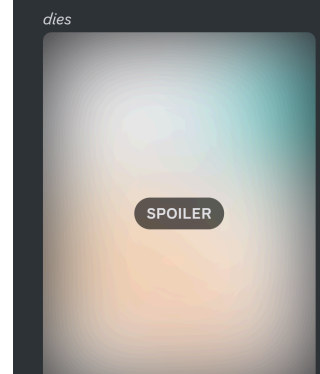

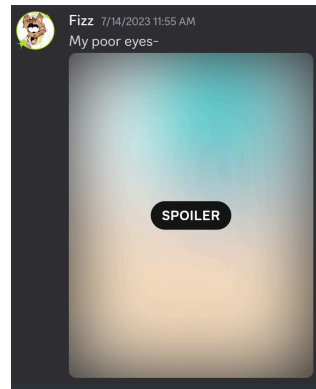

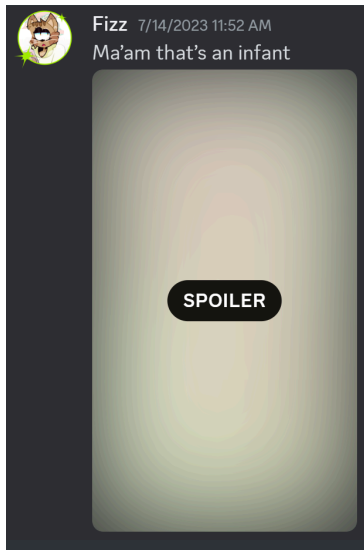

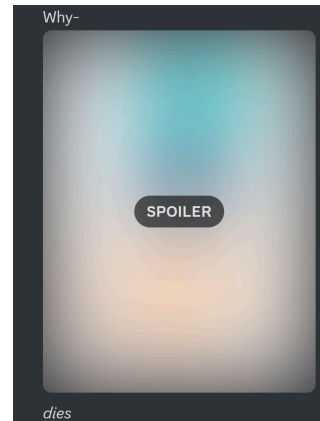

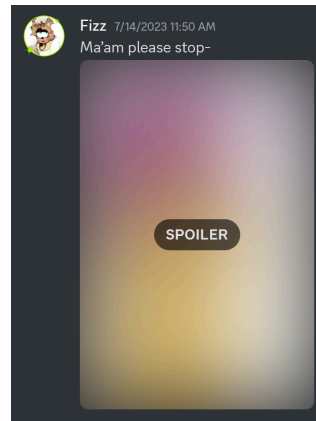

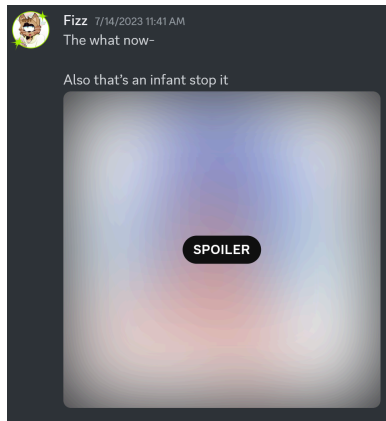

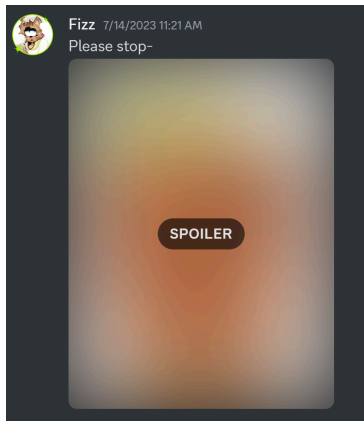

Instead of simply closing out of it and trying to erase it from his memory, he saves as much content about that topic as possible in order to share it with other people.

Fizz has spammed shota/loli content inside of a group chat multiple times, specifically artwork of child characters in the Cookie Run series. He sent 20+ images in the chat, even though he knew that one of the members of the group was only 12 years old at the time. The reason he did this was because he didn't want to be the only one to see the artwork. He's also done this with a lot of diaper and watersport content in other friend's dms, it was to the point one of them thought he did, in fact, have a diaper and watersports fetish. He states that he does not, but based off the fact that he has made his characters urinate on others and/or urinate in the others diaper in order to “mark” them, I suspect that he is lying.

All the images in the screenshots have the spoiler tag on in order to not show nsfw content of minors to others. A lot of what he says will be redundant, showing that he's just pumping the content out to pump it out, under the guise of wanting to make a video about some of the content.

He has never published a single video about this topic, but the completed thumbnail had poorly censored Sh0t@con on it. We will not be showing the thumbnail in order to comply with Google Doc's TOS and the U.S's law about CEM/CSEM content.

Using Friend's Disabilities as a Punchline

Fizz uses his friend's disabilities in jokes a lot, he'd mostly go after Green Mario, who has both mental and physical disabilities. His most used joke is "Imagine not being able to walk.", which he usually says after Green Mario makes a similar joke. Green Mario reportedly has bowed legs, making it very difficult for them to traverse areas without help, and are already subjected to ridicule in public. When called out on this behavior, Fizz showed minimal signs of changing before going back to his old ways.

He also enjoys making fun of Green Mario's height. Green Mario is shorter than average due to a spinal deformity and their growth plates fusing prematurely. This has recently spiked after he got back in contact with Kiddo (Kiddo has since cut ties with Fizz, the reason why is in the Kiddo section of Manipulating Children), who also harasses them over their height. So far Green Mario has been called:

- Dwarf
- Shorty
- Little Lady (Was only used once. They stopped using it after they started to snap at them)
 - Shorty Mc Shorterton
 - Shortass
 - Santa's elf
 - "The Dwarf"

Although most of these were used by Kiddo, Fizz never stepped in to stop them, and also fueled these remarks by making his own jokes.

Green Mario does joke about their disabilities, and prefers to be called terms that aren't socially acceptable, like midget, but there's still jokes that go way too far. Fizz and Kiddo never ask if these jokes are okay, and continue to make them despite Green Mario stating they're going too far.

Smear-Campaigns

Fizz has a history of smearing people he was once close with in order to gain popularity. According to my sources, he has been doing this since 2019-2020. He will also force himself into preexisting drama in order to garner any attention from it, regardless of the toll it has on the people who are close to him.

So far, Fizz has publicly smeared 3 people and forced himself into about 4 situations where he'd end up becoming a part of some sort of conflict, that I know of. Most of these can be found on his DeviantArt page under the username Abbyloukay.

We'll be going over the more extreme smears he has done, one against a long time friend and one against one of his once ex, but now current, lovers.

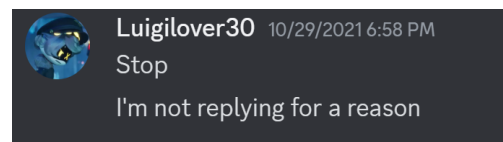

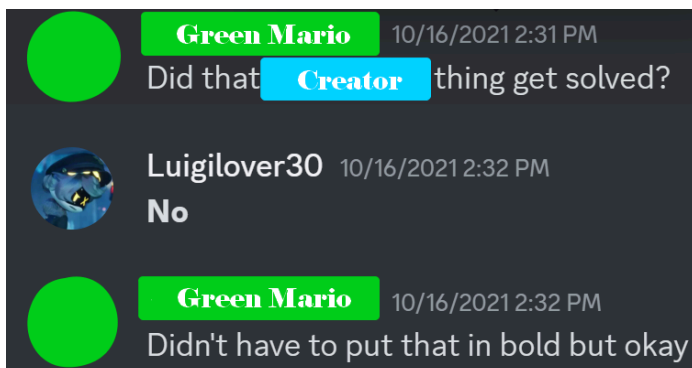

Green Mario

NOTICE: Screenshots for this part of the document might look heavily cropped, this is because a lot of these conversations contain personal information and I do not wish to leak, and private info of anybody involved. This situation is also a massive lose-lose scenario. All parties did something wrong in the moment, although one is much easier to sympathize with than the other.

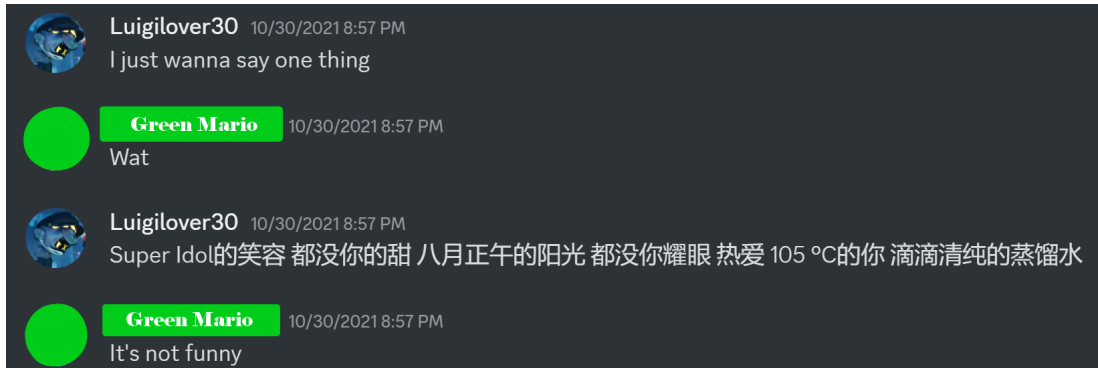

On September 9th, 2021, Fizz joined a server that centered around a relatively popular up-and-coming Scratch YouTuber and became friends with the content creator themselves. During this time, a user that we'll call Green Mario, was friends with him for 2 years. At the time of making this post, they have been friends with him for around 5 to 6 years.

Shortly after joining said server, Fizz began to push Green Mario away in favor of the content creator and their fandom. It is unknown why this happened, it's either due to Green Mario not being as famous as the creator or due to Green Mario not having an interest in some of the fandoms he became fixated on due to the creator. Fizz would climb the server's ranks fast, and soon became one of the biggest moderators within it. Based on my current knowledge of their relationship, he is no longer close with this content creator and has attempted to smear them as well. The smear document, as well as an unaltered callout video, are currently considered lost media. The altered version is not published to the public.

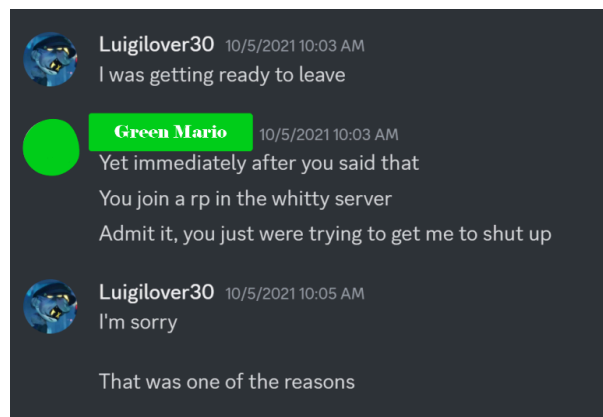

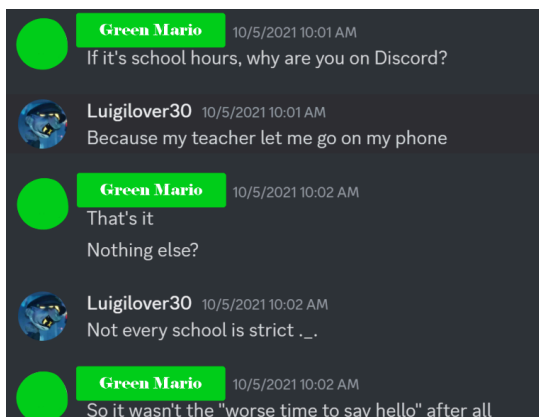

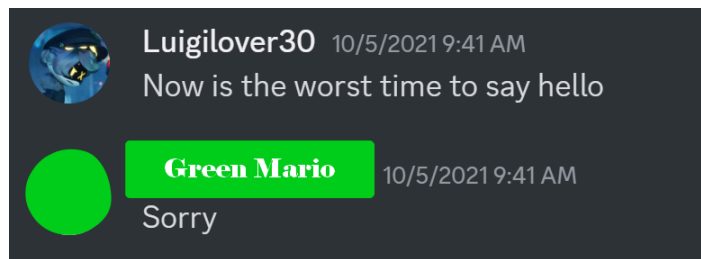

During the time he was friends with this creator, Fizz would become hostile towards Green Mario whenever they tried to contact him. This was mostly by using the bold font to seem intimidating, making rude comments, or demanding that they stop talking to him before even starting a conversation. (Some screenshots of this were lost, as some of it happened inside of a group chat that no longer exists.)

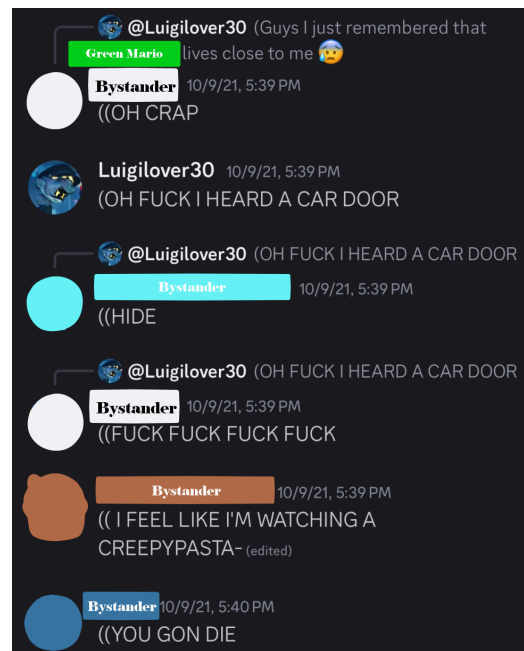

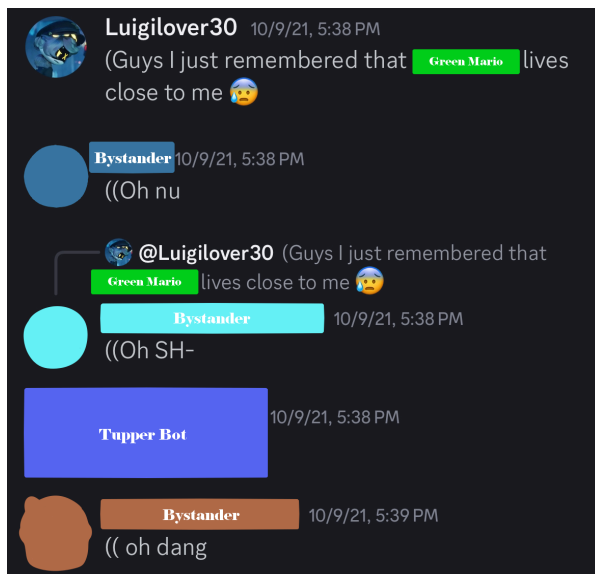

Fizz would also respond to Green Mario's attempts at confronting him about this behavior with memes, heavily implying that it was all a joke to him.

Fizz would also make up reasons to not talk to Green Mario, then try to backtrack when he was caught. This isn't in the screenshots below, but after this specific encounter Fizz tried to guilt trip Green Mario by making comments about how he was crying, and that he was going to be crying in front of young children.

Green Mario dealt with this behavior for a whopping 3 months. They kept their frustration bottled up for so long that, like any other person would, they ended up exploding under the pressure. Little did Green Mario know, Fizz has been painting them out to be a bad person in the mod chat of the creator's server. He even went as far as making other people in the server believe that Green Mario knew where he lived and was out to get him, which is not true due to Green Mario's previously unshared disabilities making it hard for them to leave the house.

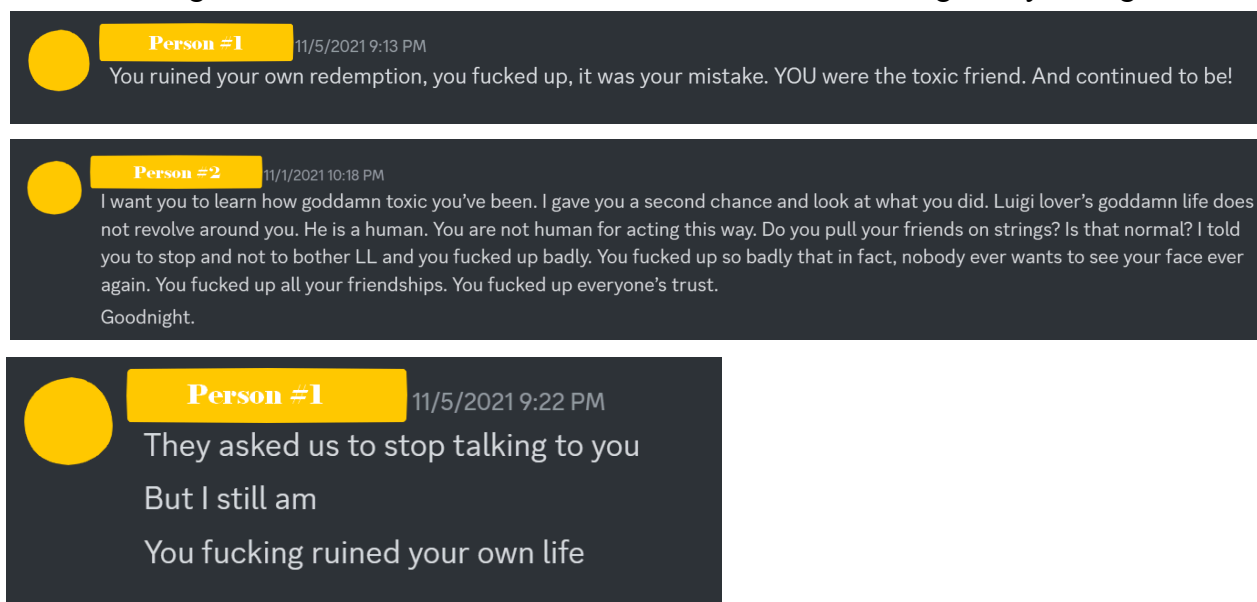

What isn't captured in this group of screenshots is that Fizz says that Green Mario is going to hurt or even kill him, then stating it was a 'false alarm' a few minutes later.

Green Mario was forced into a group chat on a later date, where Fizz, the content creator, and some of their friends belittle and humiliate Green Mario without giving them much of a chance to speak. There are unfortunately no screenshots of this at the moment due to the group chat being deleted. I was told that there were screenshots taken but I am unsure if they are still obtainable.

NOTICE: Please note some of the participants in this group chat were minors under the age of 15. This does not defend their behavior, but it does mean that they may have changed in the time passed. If you know who some of these people are, please do not harass them or share their usernames publicly, no matter if they've changed or not.

[This gap is for screenshots if they're found so they can easily be placed into the document.]

The result of this behavior was Green Mario getting sent many unsolicited messages, most of these being threats or insults. Here's a small amount of all the messages they were given.

Pineapple

NOTICE: Pineapple is also a controversial user, they have been confirmed to be ableist and racist. They have displayed similar traits to Fizz in the form of pushing their somnophilia and obsession with hypnosis. This incident, however, is still relevant because as of now the two have gotten back together despite Fizz's controlling friendship with them and are currently fueling each other's disgusting behavior.

I am unsure of when Pineapple and Fizz first met, or how their relationship started to blossom, but the two were together for a while before their relationship suddenly took a dark turn. Fizz started to call out Pineapple on behavior Fizz has shown and still shows today. It started off with something as simple as getting snippy at others for small things, then it quickly grew to judging Pineapple for their fetishes and accusing them of being a groomer.

Fizz was constantly spewing foul things about Pineapple behind their back to his friends. One day he ended up snapping at Pineapple, and broke off the relationship. Pineapple was devastated, and as a result, due to sending Fizz all of their money over Apple Pay, as well as giving him ownership of most of not all their discord servers, they committed acts of self harm, mostly cutting and hair pulling. We know that this happened because Pineapple sent photographs of their wounds from self harming in a private server. We will not be showing these images for Pineapple's sake.

During this time, Fizz forced most of his current friendbase to help him create a ~150+ page document on Pineapple. The document does have Pineapple's older usernames in it, if you know what their current username is please keep it to yourself. The document was ported into Notability after being reported on Google Docs and access to it was restricted. Fizz refused to attempt to make a copy of the google document in fear that it would cause a virus on his tablet.

[Link to the document]

Fizz rushed everyone that worked on the google document, which is why it is so unorganized, and why a good chunk of the pages are mostly blank.

It would have been more organized but Fizz decided to demand it be finished immediately after telling us not to rush and that we had months to work on it, and then the original document was reported and taken down

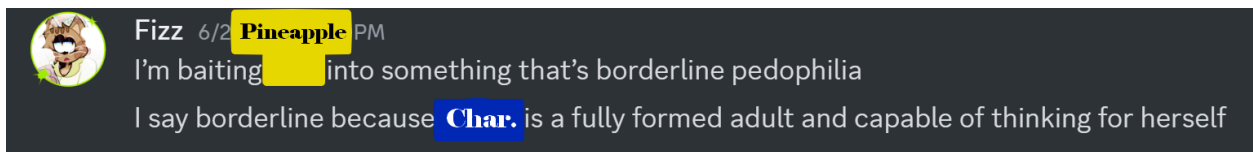

Fizz returned to Pineapple shortly after in order to feign a friendship, and over time gained Pineapple's trust again. During this time Fizz went back to spewing foul things about Pineapple behind their back, and did so until November 23, 2024.

Nintendo wants to know if you'd like to meet him. He has only heard things about you from Fizz so don't get too offended if he assumes anything weird Fizz told him you have a piss kink if I remember correctly, but don't tell him I told you that)

Fizz has also manipulated, or in Fizz's words 'baited', Pineapple into partaking in problematic activities such as shipping children with adults, or even fetishizing characters made specifically for them to like and be shamed for liking. For context, Character. was born physically mature, but is legally an infant. This was so Fizz and Pineapple could have a loophole so they could ship Character with an adult male.

Manipulating Children

Fizz has manipulated several children between the ages of 13-16 years of age, most of the time it was to do things they did not want to do. He'd use guilt-tripping and intimidation tactics against them, and wouldn't take no for an answer.

He would also send them against people that he does not like.

Kiddo

Kiddo was one of the minors Fizz has manipulated, and I got the privilege to interview them. Please note that I used Nintendo's account to interview them, I do not have a Discord account nor do I ever plan on getting one.

Kiddo was friends with Fizz for approximately 1½ years before the two cut ties. They would look up to him, idolizing him even.

He would use the excuse of forgetting to allow his characters to sexually assault Kiddos, even though Kiddo has stated that he is uncomfortable several times that he was uncomfortable with that happening.

Fizz has also sent Kiddo after several users. These users being Dr. Thunder, Pineapple, and a user I'll nickname Felis. Unfortunately evidence of this has been lost to time for now.

He would also gaslight Kiddo many times. An example of this being when Kiddo used to ship the characters Dark Choco Cookie, Purple Yam Cookie, and Milk Cookie from the Cookie Run series. During the middle of a roleplay, specifically of one where the polycule was getting married, Fizz and Pineapple teamed up to have the poly disbanded. This came with no warning, and Fizz (who was playing Purple Yam) had twisted him into being a serial rapist. When Kiddo confronted them about the rudeness of it, they told him that they were “dropping hints” when Fizz also implied that Purple Yam sexually assaulted Dark Choco Cookie, this was inspired by a non con comic that he and Pineapple are big fans of. They even made one of the panels an emoji in Kiddo's server without Kiddo's permission, Kiddo is not able to remove the emoji due to losing ownership of the server and Fizz refusing to let anyone give him his moderation status back.

This emoji is from this server. Get Nitro to use it everywhere.

Purple Yam Cookie APP 2/2/23, 11:43 AM

please

He'd also make fun of Kiddo behind his back, this can be seen in the Kiddo section of Shaming Other Artists if you need a refresher. When Kiddo confronted him about this, he instantly panicked and crumbled in on himself, showing that he doesn't expect people to scold him for his behavior.

Fizz kept luring Kiddo back into the friend group. He did this 3 or 4 times before Kiddo cut him off for good.

Dr Thunder

Dr. Thunder was another person that Fizz had manipulated. They were a very close friend of Fizz's, and would spend a lot of time together. They'd roleplay often and would take time out of their school day to text. They have since drifted apart, and don't communicate often due to Fizz favoring interactions with Pineapple. The only times Fizz would interact with Dr. Thunder was when he wanted to show them things or make fun of random people, the assumably most recent being him making fun of a child who was groomed, due to the groomer being a self proclaimed 'antishipper.'

Based on the messages I have seen of the two talking, he had guilt-tripped and intimidated Dr. Thunder many times. It was to the point Dr. Thunder seemed to be conditioned to do whatever he told them out of fear, or perhaps just compliance. They did this for years before they ended up snapping at him and Pineapple due to their growing distance after the Nintendo incident.

Fizz had sent Dr. Thunder after many people, these include Green Mario, Pineapple, Kiddo, and Felis. Dr. Thunder once stated that Fizz sent Felis death threats behind closed doors, but didn't condemn or defend him doing so.

I assume that the reason Fizz went after Pineapple was due to the friend group's worries about manipulation, and Fizz took those worries and twisted it so they were a reality, then used the claims against Pineapple. Fizz made Dr. Thunder and a couple others create the ~150+ page Google document against Pineapple, and Pineapple had to abandon all their old projects and socials and rebrand. The two have since gotten back together and Pineapple is being manipulated by Fizz to do things against their will, and it is destroying their mental health. That will be talked about more in the Pineapple section of this category.

It's assumed the reason Fizz went after Kiddo was for their childish behavior, despite Kiddo being under the age of 13 when those events happened. A Google Document was also made about them, but I am unsure if it was spread anywhere outside of a minor YouTube community post, which will not be linked for privacy reasons.

He'd often imply that his characters would sexually assault theirs, as well as others' characters, via a cut in roleplays they'd do, and show chats pornographic imagery despite there being minors in them. He'd send that type of content outside of the designated nsfw channels, and would post nsfw content in servers with no designated nsfw channel. The latter stopped once a 5 year old gained access to the server and saw said content, a nsfw channel was made and marked as age restricted. Fizz still posts NSFW content outside of the designated channel, however, making the age restricted channel useless.

Dr. Thunder was advocating for Fizz in the past, despite hearing him manipulate family members in voice calls using baby-talk and purposefully slurring his words to sound more infantile, but it can be assumed they were being manipulated, or were perhaps completely unaware. Here is a message that summed up their experiences using an older controversy Dr. Thunder was a part of;

“If you're his friend, check the stability of your relationship with him, you might be being manipulated too, just like me.”

Paprika

Paprika has known Fizz for 3 years, and dated him twice. They state that he showed no red flags at the time and was relatively nice to them, and developed feelings for them around the 5th month of knowing him, and started dating for the first time in the 7th month. Their relationship was relatively normal for three months until he suddenly broke things off. Paprika has since learned this was due to Pineapple sabotaging both of the relationships.

One day later, Fizz asked Paprika if they could get back together. Paprika agreed and the relationship. During their one 1½ month relationship, Fizz was extremely distant and sometimes refused to talk to them. The two broke up again but chose to be friends.

Fizz then introduced them to Pineapple, Green Mario, Kiddo, and Dr. Thunder. Everyone but Pineapple was nice to them, who avoided them like the plague and lashed out at the others when Paprika joined the group's discord server.

They were bullied by Fizz and Pineapple for being uncomfortable with sexual assault, and was infantilized by the two as well. Paprika mentioned that they started to dread being a part of the friend group due to the two, mentioning how they'd become physically ill if they thought about interacting with them. They also said that they were afraid of Fizz for most of their relationship.

Paprika cut the group off completely, and has since learned that Fizz stole every single one of their ocs, which can be seen here. Paprika has also learned that he made fun of their appearance, and has picked on them for not enjoying abusive ships or "toxic yaoi," which Fizz has stated to love many times.

Fizz also falsely accused them of grooming him, as well as pushing a pregnancy fetish onto them. Paprika stated that both the grooming and pregnancy fetish are false, and that those statements are hypocritical.

Pineapple

NOTICE: Pineapple is also a controversial user, they have been confirmed to be ableist and racist. They have displayed similar traits to Fizz in the form of pushing their somnophilia and obsession with hypnosis. This incident, however, is still relevant because as of now the two have gotten back together despite Fizz's controlling friendship with them and are currently fueling each other's disgusting behavior.

Pineapple is Fizz's current partner at the time of writing this version of the document. The two have known each other for a long time, based on the document that Fizz created against Pineapple they have known each other since 2021 and have dated twice so far.

During their first relationship, Fizz would constantly bait Pineapple into doing horrible things, which can be seen in the Pineapple section of Smear-Campaigns. The things that Pineapple was conned into doing were.

- Supporting incestuous relationships, I am unsure if this has stopped.
- Supporting racism, this has mostly stopped.

- Supporting ableism, I am unsure if this has stopped.
 - Being a Neo-Nazi, this has since stopped.
- Supporting proshipping. The morality of this can be up to debate, but due to them having comship/darkship emoji combos in their discord profile when I am writing this I can safely say this is a bad thing. This is still ongoing.
- Supporting L011/$h0t@con content, as seen in the section of Pineapple's document where they wanted a 12 year old Gingerbright from the Cookie Run series to be impregnated. I am unsure if this has stopped.
- Supporting Slavery. This has since evolved into something else, but supporting slavery in real life has since stopped.
- Supporting Rape. This has since evolved into something else, but supporting rape in real life has since stopped.
 - Fetishizing medical conditions such as incontinence, down syndrome, and other physical/mental conditions. I am unsure if this has stopped.

Fizz has also sent Pineapple against several people, all instances of this has damaged Pineapple's mental health and caused them to snap at Fizz several times due to him constantly dragging them into situations they don't want to be in. The most recent instance of this has been with Nintendo, that situation can be seen here in case you need a reminder.

Fizz's tactic of manipulating Pineapple is to constantly lovebomb them, copy their mannerisms, and use intimidation tactics to get what they want. Pineapple has admitted to being terrified of them several times in multiple servers, Fizz just ignores or laughs off these remarks.

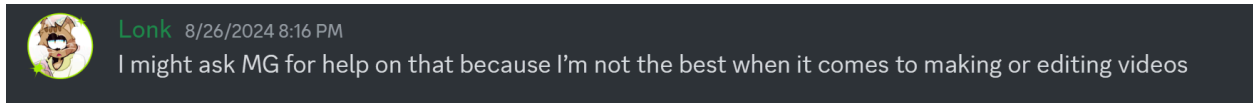

Fizz will keep Pineapple around until they outlive their usefulness, then Pineapple gets violently shunned and their reputation completely ruined. Again, this can be seen in the Pineapple section of Smear-Campaigns. When they are needed again, either to entertain Fizz or to be sent after people, Fizz will sweet talk them into being his friend again. This process has only happened once that I know of.

Forging and Profiting Off Others Art Styles

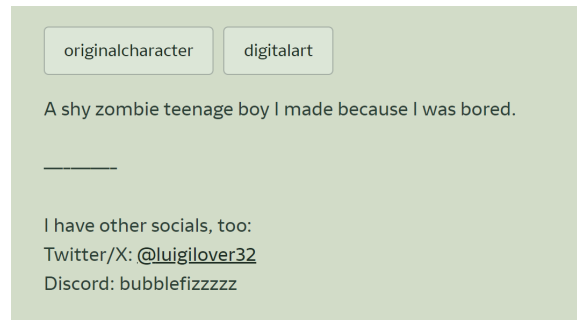

An art style is an artist's signature way of drawing certain features. For example, Picasso's art style is much more abstract and colorful. This is what makes Picasso's art stand out against others. While a style cannot exactly be stolen, it can be replicated or forged to look authentic.

Typically, it is seen as rude to replicate someone's style without permission, let alone making a profit off it. This, however, is something Fizz will do with no regrets. It is unknown how many people he has forged the art style of so far, but the most notable one is of the popular Youtuber that goes by MushroomGirl.

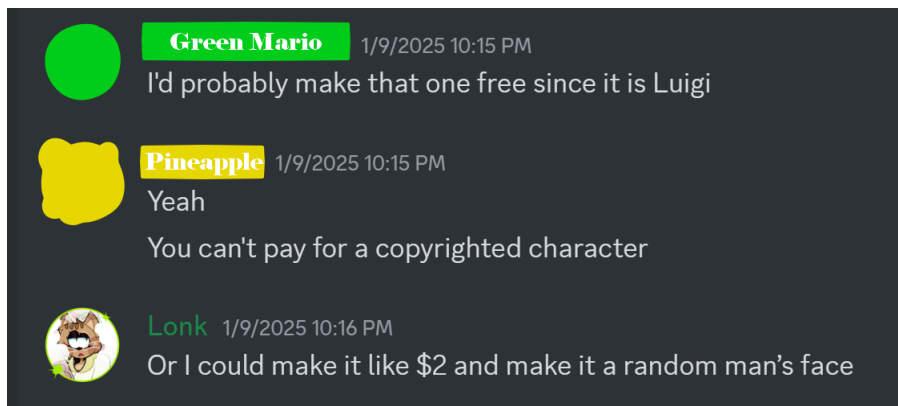

Fizz crashed into this content creator's life head-first after learning that they were controversial, and only became friends with them in order to put himself into their drama. He could be heard in a YouTube Short's video screaming random memes and threats at the creator of the video, who is simply trying to have a conversation with MushroomGirl. (Said creator has since been coerced off of the internet using potentially false allegations, meaning all of his MushroomGirl content is private.) He has also tried to have MushroomGirl edit videos for him.

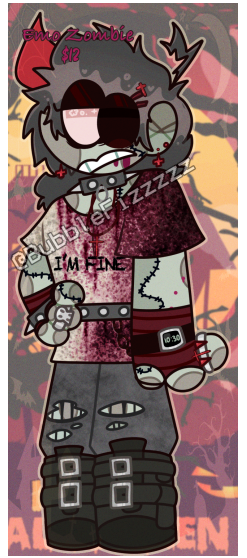

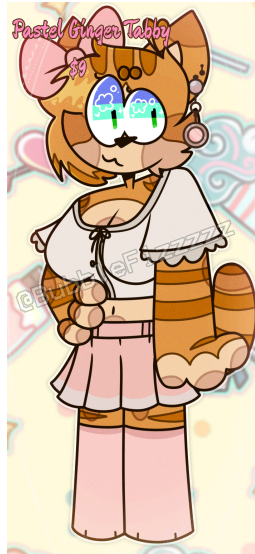

He then went on to start copying MushroomGirl's way of drawing, some examples of these are on his DeviantArt account, and he does not credit MushroomGirl for the art style or any inspiration. Here's just one of the examples.

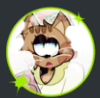

He has also used MushroomGirl's art style to make adopts that cost as much as $12 USD a piece. So far I have only been able to find them on Discord, and I am unsure if any of the designs have been bought. Some of the adopts are also heavily based on copyrighted characters, but are rebranded to 'avoid copyright' due to these works being sold. In total, the currently produced adoptables are worth about $78 USD in total, and it was implied that Fizz may make more in the future.

Fizz has also stated that the outfits used to make most of not all of the adopts are from AI generated images, and aren't just inspired by them. While I do not support the use of generative AI in place of art, Fizz has been sourcing from Deviantart adoptables generated with AI, which can be seen by generative AI users as taking from those who generated the original AI designs, especially the ones being sold. This also proves Fizz's laziness when it comes to potentially making a quick few dollars using one of his semi-self-loathed hobbies.

Lonk 12/28/2024 2:30 PM

Oh btw if you haven't noticed I'm using AI generated outfits for my adopts

Because AI can't be copyrighted so screw AI sellers <3

Even though MushroomGirl herself is an incredibly controversial and problematic person, this does not warrant the forgery of her artstyle. It's even less warranted that her art style is being forged to gain a near-great sum of money without her consent or without giving her compensation due to the forgery, despite talking about how close he is to her as a friend.

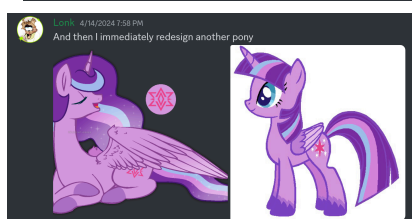

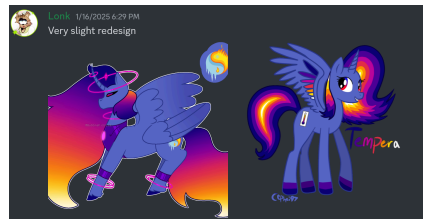

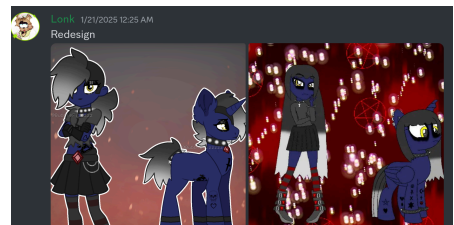

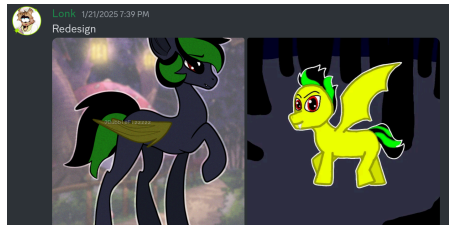

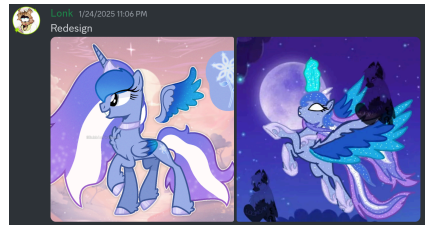

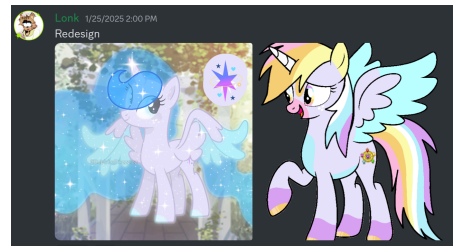

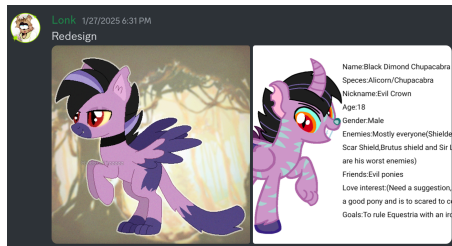

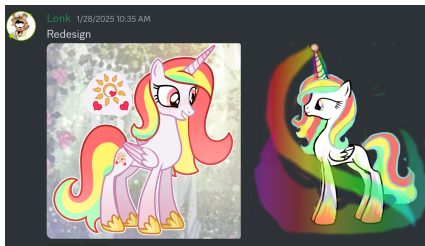

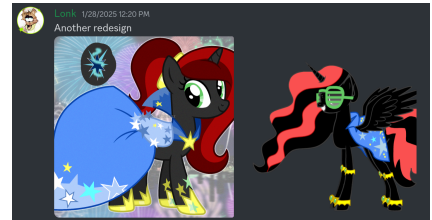

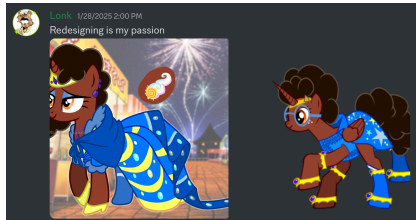

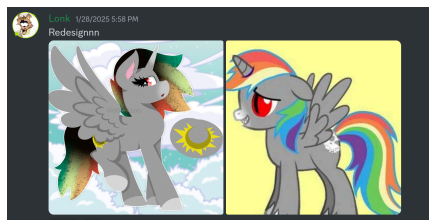

Stealing Others Original/Fandom Characters

If you have a character that Fizz either is interested in or thinks is 'cringe', he will take it from you. He does not give credit to the original artist nor gets permission most of the time. He thinks that the characters are "abominations" that he "needs" to fix, most of the time he just gets rid of any disabilities or special traits the character has. Sometimes he makes the character so over designed or stray so far away from the original design that it's unrecognizable.

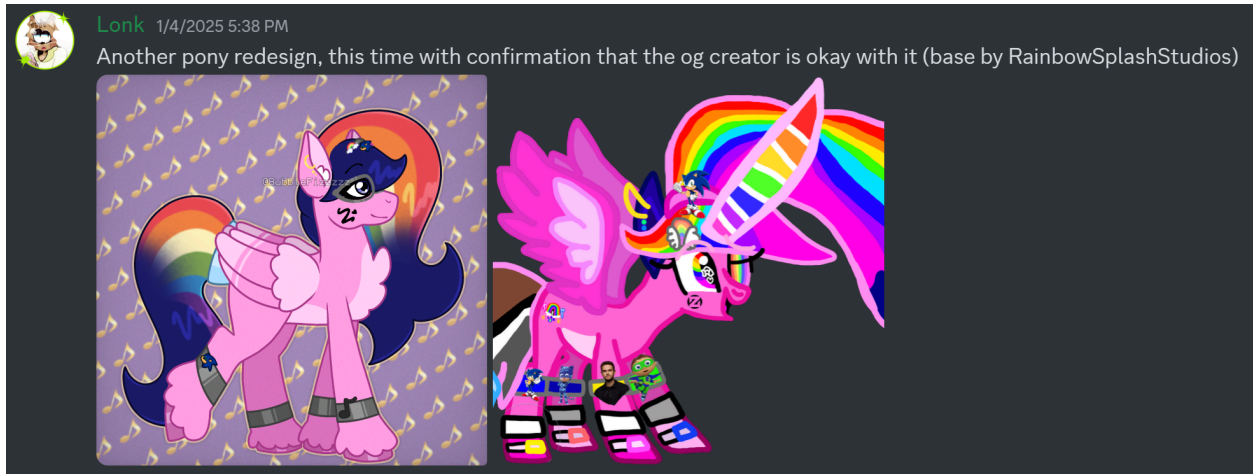

My Little Pony OCS

He has done this to countless MLP artists as of late, not asking any of the creators for permission nor giving them credit for the original design. He mostly steals characters from beginner artists or users with alicorn OCs, deeming them to be too 'Mary Sue' or poorly designed. Most of his MLP artwork is made using bases, and he rarely credits the maker of the base. He has reportedly only made one of his own bases for his art.

I was unfortunately unable to find the original creators of the designs.

Proof that he usually does not ask before redesigning people's OCs.

His Friend's Characters

He has done this as well in the past with his friend, Green Mario's, character. The only clarification that the character was based off Green Mario's character was a comment made by Green Mario himself to answer a question someone had about the character.

NOTICE: The characters' designs have since changed a lot since Fizz's original copy was created. Fizz also used she/her pronouns at the time.

She based him off my character, and when he died he transformed into a Boo. So maybe she had the same thing happen to her version, thus changing his species entirely.

Green Mario's old artwork of the character

He has also done this with several of Pineapple's characters, which made them so distressed that they gave the characters to Fizz and will get upset whenever said characters are mentioned.

Fizz has gone out of his way to mention said character as often as possible due to this.

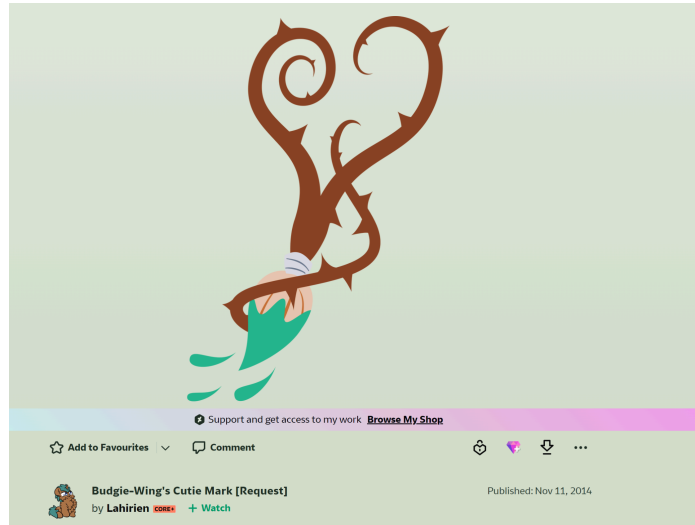

Commissioned/Requested Art

Fizz has also stolen cutie marks someone commissioned or requested for their own pony character to use on his ponysona and other pony designs.

Fizz's ponysona's cutiemark is actually a stolen image from Deviantart

What's worse is he isn't just stealing from the artist and lying about them being deactivated, he's stealing from the requester/commissioner who requested/commissioned the cutie mark to be made

The artists being Lahirien (the actual artist) and Budgie-Wing/Fauxnicorn (the recipient of the art) (edited)

What makes this worse is that Lahirien helps make people cutie marks for free, and has made a total of 353 cutie marks. Fizz has made a habit of taking cutie marks from Lahirien, as well as other artists, for various other 'redesign' projects. Occasionally, the cutie mark isn't drawn to be a cutie mark at all, and is a proper art piece. An example would be his usage of furry pornography by ConfusedEwe/LewdEwe as a cutie mark on one of his inappropriate redesigns.

While ConfusedEwe was credited, neither they nor the commissioner of the original art piece were asked if the commission could be used this way. The uncensored version has been kept with the spoiler tag for the sake of not exposing the lewd art directly to the public eye.

If you'd like to see the source of the cutie mark, it can be found by searching through the LewdEwe archive on FurAffinity, but was most likely sourced using the Rule 34 website, as Fizz has a form of chronic addiction to pornographic art.

Kiddo's Characters

Fizz has also stolen one of Kiddo's ocs, purely due to him not liking Kiddo and wanting to prove he could design a character better, (despite not changing a single aspect of the character's design outside of making them heavier.)

Proof that the character did belong to Kiddo.

Paprika's Characters

Fizz has stolen just about every single one of Paprika's characters, and twisted some of them to fit his fetishes.

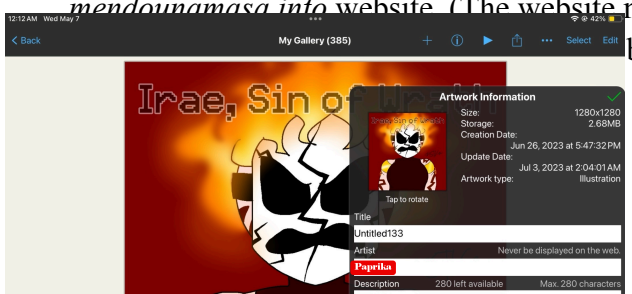

In this example, Fizz traced AI generated pornography and heavily based his version off of Lust from Shazam. He has stated that his version of this character is a pedophile, necrophile, zoophile, and a rapist. He also views his version of this character as sexually attractive.

The background of Fizz's version was AI generated and mirrored, and the chair/pose was traced off of an uncredited base, most likely one created by whoever previously owned the mendounamasa.info website. (The website now redirects to a VPN advertising site.) I assume the Fizz directly traced a frame of Wrath from the Shazam movie.

Fizz's version of this character was made conventionally attractive and masculine on purpose, I assume it's to make fun of the fact the original character is aroace and nonbinary.

I am unsure why Fizz changed his loc-like serpents into a simple braid, nor why the mask looks to be broken and burnt. He appears to have drawn the character to be heavy like the original, but in a more 'refined' or 'superior' way.
