

Name _____ Date _____ Class _____

A citation is a quotation from or reference to a book, paper, or author, especially in a scholarly work. When doing research, it is important to give credit to the resource you used. We give them credit, by creating a Works Cited page, also known as a Bibliography, in MLA format. A web citation, is setup like this:

Author(s). "Title of Article/Page." Other Contributor(s). Name of Web Site. Site Publisher/Sponsor, Date of E-Publication. Web.Date of Access. <Optional URL>.

Noodletools.com can help you create citations.

Creating a Works Cited page with Noodletools

Creating an account:

1. Go to www.noodletools.com
2. Click the blue sign in button in the upper right hand corner.
3. If you already have an account, sign in and skip to #6. If not, in the bottom left, click "Register"
4. Click the third option titled "A Noodletools MLA lite account"
5. Create your New User Registration using the directions on the right. With your pencil, write in your login information.

The screenshot shows the Noodletools registration interface. At the top, it says "Choose a Personal ID" with a help icon. Below this are three input fields: "Personal ID" (with a red prompt "Use your cfs_lastf username"), "Password", and "Retype Password". Each field has a "CHECK AVAILABILITY" button to its right. Below these fields is a section titled "Easy Login Retrieval" with a help icon. It contains two input fields: "Initials (e.g. 'JS' for John Smith)" and "Phone Number (last 4 digits only)". Each field has a "Lunch Code" button to its right. At the bottom of the form is a large blue "REGISTER" button.

Now that you created an account, we will "Create a New Project"

6. In the upper left-hand corner, click
7. Enter your project title and click "Submit."
8. In your Dashboard, you'll want to name your research question by clicking next to it to edit.
9. At the top, click "Sources."

10. Next, you'll need to click "Create new citation."

11. Once you do, click the "Where is it?" option, for example "Website," and choose "What is it?" as best you can, for example "Webpage."

12. Use the form to fill in the information you know, then click "Submit." This is an example of filling out the form for citing a Web Page from a Web Site. Other citation pages will look different.

Website

URL:

Date of publication:
 month day 2016

Most recent date of access [today?]:
 September 2016

Web Page Change to: Select...

Contributors:

	Role	First name	Middle name	Last name or group	Suffix
up down	Author	Venetia		Ricchio

+ Add another contributor

* Web page or document/article title:
 ☐ Untitled (providing a description instead)

English translation of document/article title:

Website Change to: Select...

* Name of the website:

Publisher of the site:

Editors of the site as a whole:

	Role	First name	Middle name	Last name or group	Suffix
up down	Editor	Alice		Keeler

+ Add another contributor

13. To add more citations, repeat steps 10-12.

When finished, you can export your citations to your Google Drive page by selecting the drop-down menu next to Print/Export, and select Print/Export to Google Docs.

