INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION

Please note: Each cell allows for a maximum number of characters that may not be exceeded. The number of allowable characters varies. An error message will appear until the number of characters indicated is reduced to meet the individual cell's requirement. Please note also that page numbers referenced below match the page numbering of the entire workbook. When viewed on the computer, each section (sheet) in the workbook is numbered separately. For this reason, the applicant may find it helpful to first print the entire document as a workbook (pages 1 through 60).

Main Page Tab

Type the applicant's name in cell F13. This feature will automatically insert the applicant throughout the application.

Application Directory

By clicking the buttons in this directory, you can navigate to specific sections of the application. To return to the directory, choose the "Back to the Main Page" button in any section.

Budget Check Tab

This section is designed to warn you if there are errors in the alignment of budgets. If column E is blank after the Budget Summary have been completed, then the budgets are balanced. If there are error messages in column E, then please make the necessary corrections.

Cover Pages (1-3)

- 1. The applicant will complete the applicant and co-applicant sections. The co-applicant must be a local school division.
- 2. The local school division superintendent must review and approve the application prior to submission to the VDOE unless the application proposes to serve students from a private school only.
- 3. The organization representative should complete the certification by securing all appropriate signatures.
- 4. Please indicate in the appropriate check box(es) if the application proposes to serve students in middle schools or high schools.
- 5. On page 2, complete the areas indicating the school(s) to be served/grade level, comprehensive/targeted/additional targeted status, accreditation status, if the school has

Note: The projected Average Weekly Attendance (AWA) is the total number of unduplicated participants who are projected to attend at least one session during a program week.

The AWA will be used to evaluate the participation in the program. The AWA is calculated by totaling the number of unduplicated participants attending at least one session during a week, adding all the totals for all weeks of service through March 1, and dividing that number by the number of weeks of service provided. The Average Weekly Attendance should be reported for the regular school year program. Do not combine the calculations. The AWA should be calculated for the regularly occurring programming. Do not include occasional programming such as Saturday sessions unless they are a part of the weekly program.

Scenarios:

- 1. Student A attends a morning session on Monday and afternoon session on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. The attendance count for Student A is 1.
- 2. Student B attends afternoon sessions on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. The attendance count for Student B is 1.
- 3. Student C attends an afternoon session on Wednesday. The attendance count for Student C is 1.

Program Summary

This section should describe the structure of the summer program and school year and the procedures for managing it effectively. Included in this section should be:

- 1) instructional program;
- 2) family engagement activities;

3) planned field trips and/or special projects; budget overview; and a timeline.

The information provided in this section should align with the Budget Narrative Sheet details. This section must also include a description of a preliminary plan for how the community learning center will continue after funding under this grant ends. A description of how the eligible entity will disseminate information about the community learning center (including its location) to the community in a manner that is understandable and accessible shall also be included. Each required section is described in more detail below.

1) Instructional Program

- a. Describe the daily activities which include academic and enrichment activities, their frequency, and locations. Stipulate if that the activities offer academic assistance (AA) or enrichment activities (EA) and the primary type of activity: Tutoring/Homework; Project Based Learning; Recreational.
 - The academic assistance component must incorporate a broad array of evidence-based activities that are designed to complement the school day and help students from low-performing schools meet district academic achievement standards in mathematics and reading/language arts.
 - The enrichment activities must offer an array of additional services, programs, and activities that reinforce and complement the regular academic program of participating students.

Activities can fall within one of the three primary types of afterschool activities:

- 1) Tutoring/Homework Help Extends the students' daily class work into afterschool. Tutors or teachers help students complete their homework, prepare for tests, and work on concepts covered during the school day.
- 2) Project Based Learning Expands on students' learning in ways that are different from the school day. Activities are engaging, interactive, creative, and often project or activity focused to address several learning points at one time, allowing for exploration beyond the basic concepts. Projects should be integrated across subjects, assisting students and their family members to apply the knowledge and skills from school to real-life experiences, to explore new roles, and to understand different perspectives.
- 3) Recreational Activities Do not necessarily address academic concepts, but can include lessons learned including social skills, teamwork, leadership, competition, and discipline that demonstrate a connection to improving achievement in mathematics or reading/language arts.
- b. Describe the steps the applicant proposes to take to ensure equitable access to, and participation in, its federally-assisted program for students, teachers, and other program beneficiaries with special needs as required by the General Education Provisions Act (GEPA) 427, OMB Control No. 1801-0004, Section 427.

2) Family Engagement

Family literacy services are defined as services provided to participants on a voluntary basis that are of sufficient intensity in terms of hours, and duration, to make sustainable changes in a family, and that integrate all of the following activities:

- Interactive literacy activities between parents and their children.
- Training for parents and/or guardians regarding how to be the primary teacher for their children and full partners in the education of their children.
