

Dove Cameron Celebrates

Throws Blowout Disney Themed Party

After her big win over Amped's superstar Lightweight Sky Ferreira, Badass Barbie Lightweight Champion Dove Cameron decided to throw a blowout party. After battling through her toughest fight to date, breaking Sky's record 16 fight win streak and keeping her title for the record breaking 6th consecutive time, Dove felt she needed to celebrate and an impromptu party was needed.

Dove rented the MGM Grand Wet Republic Ultra Pool for her Disney themed party. She invited all of her former co-workers from her days on The Disney Channel as well as any UCC fighter who worked for the Entertainment giant. As one would imagine, dozens of UCC fighters accepted her offer and before she could even book the venue, 41 fighters agreed to put rivalries aside and come together and relax by the pool and reminisce on their time with the media mogul.

Dove insisted that no violence of any sort was to take place and anyone caught in a catfight would be immediately expelled by security. Dove planned a list of fun games for her guests to enjoy and hired an exclusive events firm to decorate the pool complex. She hired Bobby Flay to cook out some tasty meals and convinced Sky's teammates Dua Lipa, Charlie XCX, and Bebe Rexha to perform for the Disney alums.

15 of Dove's current teammates took the short 45 minute flight to Las Vegas while 27 guests from 8 other stables followed suit. Dove's only stipulation was that no Nickelodeon Starlets would be allowed in. A sentiment that was unanimously agreed upon by all of her guests.

Dove came up with 8 events for her guests to enjoy and a signup sheet was posted. Participation was not required but the slots quickly filled up as the competitive UCC fighters were eager to prove their physical abilities to their colleagues. The first three events were traditional sporting contests and the rules were simple. Dove desperately wanted to have an Oil Wrestling competition but was talked out of it by the MGM staff. She settled on some not so popular events.

The 100 meter Dog Paddle and the 3-Legged Race were to be timed events where the fastest contestant would win. The 3 Point Basketball winner would be the shooter who sank the most 3-point buckets in 90 seconds.

The rules for the Standing Arm Wrestling were similar to standard arm wrestling only the contestants would stand with knees touching and grasp hands as in traditional arm wrestling. First person to force their opponent's hand all the way down to the right wins. The contest would be a best 2 out of 3 starting with the right hand then switching to the left. The fastest pin would decide which hand was used in the final fall if necessary.

Chicken Fight is a team event played in chest deep water. One team member sits on her teammates shoulders riding piggy-back. The object of the game is to knock down or separate an opposing team through physical effort. No hair pulling or punching allowed. 8 teams fight it out in the single elimination event,

Tug of War is a team event where 3 women stand opposite to the competition and pull back on a rope trying to pull the other team into a pool of manure.

Indian Leg wrestling sees two opponents lie on their backs on the ground, side by side, with feet facing in opposite directions. Each person raises the inside leg to a count of three. On the third count, each player hooks the other player's leg behind the knee and attempts to force the other person into a backward roll.

The Dunk Contest would start out with two contestants in chest deep water. They would wrestle around until the winner holds the loser's head underwater for 5 seconds while holding her head above water. Absolutely no hair pulling would be allowed.

Events

The sign up sheets quickly filled up forcing many of the guests to miss out on their favorite events. Taunts and smack talk flowed freely but all of Dove's guests kept their composure and enjoyed some BBQ from Bobby Flay while Charlie XCX and Bebe Rexha flawlessly performed. Dove also convinced former Disney alumni's Zac Efron and Shai LeBouf to be special hosts for the exciting contests. The referee's for the contests will be announced shortly before each event.
