

Orange County Community Resource Guide

PREGNANCY RESOURCES

Casa Teresa www.casateresa.com

A temporary home and on-going support for pregnant women 18 years of age and older who are single and have no other children. Life skills and education programs prepare these women to make loving and informed decisions for themselves and their babies.

1660 W Broadway # 221, Anaheim, CA 92802

(714) 538-4860

Precious Life Emergency Shelter www.preciouslifeshelter.org

We are a 3-phase residential program that provides supportive services and shelter for homeless women who are pregnant and at least 18 years of age or older with a valid I.D.

Must be pregnant and be able to provide physician-signed proof of pregnancy with a due date. Beds are available on a first-come, first-served basis. A phone interview with the client is completed before the physical intake to determine eligibility. Intakes occur

Monday-Saturday from 10:00am to 2:00pm only.

(562) 431-5025

Toby's House

Transitional shelter and supportive services to pregnant women in crisis.

415 N. Sycamore, Ste 200 Santa Ana, CA

(949) 661-4408