

Caste & Sikhi Readings

- “Sikhs have this feeling that they are misunderstood” – Pritam Singh
- ‘Partition-induced migration has affected identity of Dalits’
- Punjab’s Dalits and Politics of Patronage
- Pritam Singh | Twitter
- Building Begumpura: Guru Ravidas envisioned a society with people living in harmony without any sort of discrimination. He named this ideal society “Begampur (a place with no pain)”.
- Raidas Saheb and the idea of Begumpura: A city which is casteless, classless and does not have untouchability. Nobody is taxed and nobody owns wealth. There is no injustice, no worries, no terror and no torture. That was Raidas’ Begumpura. With this city of his dreams, he laid the foundation of socialism in the 15th century.
- Seeking a city without sorrow
- Making Sense of Dalit Sikh History
- Remembering the Centenary of the Re-Entry of Dalits into the Golden Temple of Amritsar
- Dalits of Punjab – Dalit Women and Their Struggles
- Fist For Farm: How Punjab’s Dalits Are Fighting For Their Right Over Common Land
- When Will Caste-Oppressed and Queer and Trans Folks Find Liberation in Sikh Spaces?
- <https://theprint.in/opinion/punjab-many-dalit-sikhs-ramdasia-ravidasia-mazhabis-r-anghretas-rai-sansi/736978/>
- <https://www.saada.org/tides/article/punjabi-sikh-and-dalit>
- Begumpura Collective Zine
- Caste, Sikhi, and Undelivered Promises: Sikh Research Journal’s Interview of the Poetic Justice Foundation

