

1 – On a symbolic date, July 7th 2007, Swiss corporation New7Wonders Foundation chose New Seven Wonders of the World. Included on the list as an honorary candidate was which landmark, the only one remaining from the list of Seven Wonders of the Ancient World?

Great PYRAMIDS of Giza

2 – Later joining and forming the main stream of the Amazon river, rivers Ene, Mantaro and Apurímac all have their sources on which mountain range?

ANDES

3 – Coloratura soprano Josepha Hofer was the first person to perform the role of which opera character? She played it in the premiere in Freihaus-Theater auf der Wieden in Vienna on September 30th, 1791.

QUEEN OF THE NIGHT / Die KÖNIGIN DER NACHT

4 – Named after the side character from Bram Stoker's novel, Renfield syndrome is also known as clinical – what? Term was coined by clinical psychologist Richard Noll as a psychiatric parody on people who are obsessed with drinking blood, over 50 thousand of them appearing throughout the 20th century.

Clinical VAMPIRISM

5 – Picture shows the intro scene of which film, and it's remake made 27 years later?

FOOTLOOSE

6 – Hurghada, one of the most important tourist destinations of which country suffered a serious blow at the beginning of July 2022, after two cases of shark attacks which resulted in deaths of two women?

EGYPT

7 – Picture shows the cover of the first issue of which comic book?

The CROW

8 – Created in 1997 as a masculine counterpart to Tamagotchi, which Bandai franchise encompasses anime, manga, video games, films and a trading card game?

DIGIMON

9 - Ayyám-i-Há is an intercalary period of four or five days in the calendar of what religion?

BAHÁ'Í FAITH / BAHAIISM

10 – Winner of the gold medal in 3x3 basketball at Tokyo Olympics and All-Star MVP award in 2022, Kelsey Plum plays for which WNBA team?

LAS VEGAS Aces / Las Vegas ACES

11 – Kanûn-u Esâsî, a document that saw the Ottoman Empire become a constitutional monarchy, was introduced during the reign of which sultan? It marked the beginning of the empire's First Constitutional Era which lasted two years

ABDUL HAMID II