Beyoncé said, I'm a grown woman
I can do whatever I want
I still have the CD

Well I guess I'm a grown woman and I can do a few things
I can listen to the music in my phone on the way home from work,
I can make pasta or salad or instant rice
I can go to the shops
I can see my friends on the weekends, unless we have assignments to write
I can plan a holiday for a few months away
I can wear my mask
I can call my parents
I can wash my hair
I can get out of bed every day
I can barely see the point
I can
I can
Grown woman
I can do it tomorrow, maybe?
