

Please note: These recommendations have come from neighbors in Spring Creek and represent individuals and businesses that may perform certain services and are either based in Spring Creek or are known to travel to Spring Creek. Inclusion of a person, business, or organization on this list does NOT constitute an endorsement. The people and businesses on this list are added by community suggestion and have not been vetted or verified in any way. Inclusion on this list does not ensure liability insurance or trade-specific certifications. Use at your own risk. This list is a jumping-off point and we recommend doing your own homework and asking for references.

To add to, delete from or edit details, please contact springcreekresourcelist@gmail.com with the pertinent information, including whether or not a ★ should be added to signify you are local. This Resource List is offered to the community by the community on a volunteer basis. We will make updates as quickly as we can! Individuals/Businesses are listed in alphabetical order within their sections.

A yellow star (★) denotes a Spring Creek Local (a person or business with physical ties to Spring Creek).

Community Health Worker
828-689-7332
The definition of a Community Health Worker is: "A frontline public health worker who is a trusted member of and/or has an unusually close understanding of the community served. This trusting relationship enables the worker to serve as a liaison/link/intermediary between health/social services and the community to facilitate access to services and improve the quality and cultural competence of service delivery. A community health worker also builds individual and community capacity by increasing health knowledge and self-sufficiency through a range of activities such as outreach, community education, informal counseling, social support and advocacy.”

More Historic Spring Creek Barns that aren't on the driving tour:
database.appalachianbarns.org/spring-creek-township-barns/
info@appalachianbarns.org

The historic barns of the Spring Creek, Bluff, and Meadow Fork communities quietly tell the lifestyle stories of the late 19th to mid-20th century farms and families. The oldest barns have survived with few family descendants remaining to tell their stories. These beautiful and distinctive barns now stand sentinel as reminders of the hard work and resourcefulness of the previous generations, and their dedication to the land.
