

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST YEAR B

A Reading from Joshua 24

¹Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel and they presented themselves before God. And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Revere the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. Now if you are unwilling to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods; for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight. He protected us along all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed; and the LORD drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore, we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God." But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD; for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins. If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after having done you good." And the people said to Joshua, "No, we will serve the LORD!" Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses." He said, "Then put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel." The people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and him we will obey." So, Joshua made a covenant with the people that day at Shechem.

Psalm 16

- 15 The eyes of the Lord are upon the /righteous, *
and his ears are open to their /cry.
- 16 The face of the Lord is against those who do /evil, *
to root out the remembrance of them from the /earth.
- 17 The righteous cry, and the Lord /hears them *
and delivers them from all their /troubles.
- 18 The Lord is near to the /broken-hearted *
and will save those whose spirits are/ crushed.
- 19 Many are the troubles of the/ righteous, *
but the Lord will deliver him out of them /all.
- 20 He will keep safe all his /bones; *
not one of them shall be/ broken.
- 21 Evil shall slay the /wicked, *
and those who hate the righteous will be /punished.
- 22 The Lord ransoms the life of his /servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in /him.

A Reading from Ephesians 5

¹⁵ Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, making the best use of the time, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ.
