Student Questionnaire

The more you share in this questionnaire, the more your recommender will be able to share with colleges about you. Your counselor's job is to give the most comprehensive portrait possible of you as both a student and a whole person. While your teacher recommendations will give an overview of you academically, your counselor will present you from multiple viewpoints (socially, emotionally, extracurricularly, etc.).

To this end, please answer these questions as authentically and as thoughtfully as possible. This is not an academic essay so please do not worry about grammar or structure! Write freely.

1. What three words best describe you and why?
2. What are your personal strengths?
3. What are your academic strengths?
4. In what areas have you seen yourself grow throughout your high school experience?
5. Aside from academics, what else would you like from your college experience?
6. List any other information that is not included anywhere else in your college application (eg. personal essay, resume) that you'd like the admissions office to know about you:

Family Questionnaire

Please use the following questions to tell us about your student — feel free to add anything at all that you would like colleges to know.

1. In what ways has your student surprised you? Do they have a passion, talent, or characteristic that is important in understanding who they are?
2. Please share a story or an anecdote that you believe exemplifies the kind of person your student is.
3. In what ways has your student contributed to Liberty Bell and to the wider community?
4. Do you believe your student's academic record is an accurate reflection of their academic potential? Discuss what you believe are their academic strengths and areas where your student might need support:
