

OTHER EXPENSES

In addition to Tuition Fees, there are various sundry fees that are charged to students' accounts monthly. These may include consumable workbooks, novels, high school textbooks, and field trips. Students enrolling in the Secondary Family Studies credit course or the Culinary Skills non credit course are charged a $150 food lab fee. New students, or students who have lost their headphones will be provided with school issued headphones and charged $50.

All additional expenses will be billed to the student's accounts monthly and are dues and payable upon receipt.
