

0:00 THEME OF SLAYER; KOREAN

0:32 Welcome to the castle super absolutely fuckin' OLD cast~! Pat is now an old man now that he's havin a child. Also its his birthday soon.

1:13 did you see that post of 'what game came out when you were 18?' on twitter and see people post devil may cry?

WEEK OF THE BEAST LORDS

WOOLIE

1:54 hasnt seen mario yet, but its making all the money. And disney once again on pushing back the public domain law. How are they going to fight it now?

- 4:57 there's a point where it becomes too obvious where they are bribing the judge.
- 6:01 its only steamboat willie mickey mouse. Trademarks last forever, but copyright doesnt. There's a lot of stuff that's coming up for public domain like golden age comic book characters.
- 8:39 copyright in canada. You can do james bond stuff in canada as long as its only in canada

9:27 megaman battle network. Remember there are sponsored streams, and SPONSORED streams. Woolie is playing it absolutely straight. You ready to JACK IN?

- 11:03 thumbs up for being able to turn off the filter. And online play is now a thing. Fight anyone at any point in their playthrough. Balance? What balance?
- 13:37 woolie's comparison point: pokemon.
- 15:45 the acknowledgement of taking your custom experience online. And playing poker.
- 17:23 pat loading up battle network 3. The real time card battle type system.
- 19:56 the games do not have the best translation. The punctuation being off.
- 21:22 have you seen the anime?
- 22:30 appreciating the naming convention and the fun designs.
- 24:25 seeing the demographic target in the designs. Meanwhile megaman 1 and 2 are brutally hard.

- 25:46 499 event cards

- 27:16 the max buster mode to skip through the games

- 28:50 seeing the complexity build up over games. And having it all except network transmission.

31:05 tell me about tetra master, woolie. FFX's minigame. Trying to understand the game. Where are the number's coming from...? Welcome to RNG dice roll hell.

- 36:42 triple triad in FFXIV, the worst rules being random and chaos. Having a fun mini game to play on your adventures is great.

- 39:02 there's parts of tetra master that you dont even know are awful. The reward for tetra master is nothing. And no point in FFXVIII where they dont force you to play triple triad. But in FFX...

- - 42:17 you can actually win that first blitzball game in FFX

- 42:57 it could have just been triple triad at home if you could control what you were doing. The 4x4 grid is neat.

- 44:42 woolie's advice back in time: just put fishing in if you cant figure out a minigame.and back in the day you could have played tetra master online.

- 46:33 minigame downgrades

- 47:53 mario party and randomness.

- 50:21 at least it doesn't hurt as bad since you can just go back to playing FFX

- 51:18 the game itself is going alright. Steal to 100% is the only thing he's done and its been great.

- 53:11 game simple, game good. And the mod is beautiful. And the effect a CRT has 55:57 the indie fighting game festival! Bunch of indie fighting games on sale. Going on stream and doing a gauntlet of indie games. DAIR. down air attack~! Reggie's inner melee comes out. Its also the sequel to nair.

- 59:05 rainbowcore hypernova

- 1:00:30 52 beat up. Pat remembers call of duty's gun game.

- 1:06:30 duels of fortune
- 1:06:55 going through announcements: terrordrome announced a jersey devil character, them's fighting herds adds a chris sabat elk.
- 1:08:12 xross dreams all the major puzzle games in a puyo puyo style vs. mode.
- 1:10:33 fighting games punching above their weight in terms of how many projects come out.
- 1:11:10 on this happening to many different genres like the bullet heaven genre with vampire survivor-likes. 20 minutes til dawn and not wanting to aim.

PAT

1:13:36 while 20 minutes til dawn does not have controller support, vampire survivors does. Also, vampire survivor's DLC is amazing. The maps are actually maps now.

- 1:15:40 the characters have more animation now. And doing zany things with the characters.
- 1:17:30 there's an anime OP type trailer but there's still that early game jank like the title screen remaining totally unchanged
- 1:18:35 there's password unlocks now. Vampire survivors is getting an engine overhaul.
- 1:21:41 getting to the AAA content but still needing to get through the basic stuff at the beginning. On the instant iterations that constantly come out.
- 1:23:44 the whole game is like, 6 dollars. And the speed of updates is continuing, but its all DLC now.
- 1:24:28 checking out the vampire survivor clones.
- - 1:25:45 second place is firmly holocure.

1:27:22 Pat beat chaos. Strangers of paradise. Getting to the 85~90% mark and seeing the moment they run out of money. And pat's cake. Olive oil citrus.

- 1:30:45 the story still hits though. One note chaos man is not quite one note.
- 1:31:45 the DLC. Chaos difficulty. And bahamut difficulty. And gilgamesh difficulty. Struggling to understand what the path is for the difficulty.

- 1:36:05 Nioh does the same thing, the difference is strangers of paradise hits you with it all at once.

- 1:38:28 how it would work out in terms of time with playing since release vs. playing getting it now

- 1:39:36 going from a character action game to an in-depth diablo.

- 1:41:41 pat's final stance: he would love these games way more without an inventory at all. He just wants ninja gaiden again.

- 1:44:38 on where you go once the character is 'complete.'

- 1:45:51 the end game here being builds, and pat not caring about that. He'd rather have item up ove build up. Pat wants uniques, not rares.

- - 1:50:25 borderlands 2 and a certain cursed gun. Adn discord completely covering up pat's screams.

- 1:55:06 its a good game, but it sucks it came out after elden ring. And pat on how the story actually hits with the low IQ party.

1:57:04 checking out games on early access. Lunacid. This is kings field 4. Its great.

- 1:58:35 it has no map. Getting lost.

- 1:59:20 the starting classes and it has really good stats. You can feel the stats.

- - 2:00:51 the resistance stat and actually wanting to level it.

- 2:03:00 only one thing he disagrees with: there's one character thats a ps1 anime girl.

2:04:20 get to the orange door is STILL in early access?! They reworked the entire game.

- 2:06:00 on the way to do it right for early access. Darkest dungeon vs. ultrakill vs. hades.

- 2:07:40 against the storm. Having the most aggressive update schedule pat has ever seen. Its miles away from finishing but they get something out every 2 weeks.

- 2:09:25 on games pat burned himself out on by playing it early: world of horror.

- 2:11:25 darkest dungeon 2 actually comes out soon. And the caravan was apparently reworked. On why woolie isnt the biggest fan of swearing on the road.

2:15:44 pat's been watching aunty donna's coffee cafe. Somehow you'll find a way to watch it.

- 2:16:45 pat explains who aunty donna is: an australian comedy group.

2:17:34 go check out patstaresat on twitch where he'll be doing early access stuff. He'll be covering the street fighter event that's hosted by lil wayne and suzi. And the post post lil wayne era.

- 2:19:28 there'll be big announcements apparently.

- 2:20:36 woolie may also be covering the street fighter event. Who knooooows

2:21:10 go check out woolie over on woolieversus for mass effect 3 and FFXI! Aria trying to girlboss but also being an idiot. And remember to go check out woolie vs. the algorithm!

2:24:15 SPONSOR: FACTOR

2:27:26 pat ordered a bunch of shirts. And woolie can now fit into his old shirts again.

- 2:29:30 on specialty stores for people like pat. And woolie hasn't gotten stuff from brick and mortar stores in a while. Getting eva shoes.

2:31:20 the full jet set radio documentary by kayisthey has just come out.

2:32:28 dread delusion. We're at that 'what if this was a fake ps1 game?' soon we're hitting fake ps2 games.

- 2:34:20 fake loading screens

- 2:37:34 mr. beast and the cost of giving away a car. And him paying the taxes on it. He was also willing to give away the cash equivalent of the prize too

2:40:40 knuckles is getting his own film

2:41:21 sega buying rovio, the angry birds company. And on the excuse its for game development for mobile.

- 2:43:46 broke: bought it for game dev. Woke: bought it for angry birds crossovers. Bespoke: bought it for a new waifu in the sega is evil game by yoko taro. And a reminder its coming out.

2:45:53 new tears of the kingdom trailer. Matt mercer as rehydrated ganondorf. Ganondorf is looking great. Still not quite hyrule warriors ganondorf, but its pretty cool.

- 2:47:16 voice acting is back and heavier than ever. And a bunch of cool stuff like primitive mech battles.

- 2:49:04 woolie liking the primal/tribal aesthetic going on. And how long are they going to keep using this engine and map? This being the equivalent of super mario galaxy 2.

- 2:51:38 silksong.... Doko...? Its confirmed to come out in 2023 at least.

- 3:03:25 deep rock galactic and it's total size being very, very small.

- 3:04:55 the quickstart mode in compliance.

- 3:08:00 the worst optimized game in terms of space for its time is the force unleashed.

- 3:09:47 pat still believes call of duty's file sizes are on purpose so you cant install fortnite.

3:10:26 dwarf fortress is 40 dollars. Is it worth it?

3:12:04 suicide squad kill the justice league delayed to 2024. The point in time in dev where going over a certain time period just means stuff has become a mess behind the scenes.

- 3:15:03 what do you say on them saying '10 months for polish pls?'

- 3:18:13 shadow of war getting all the microtransaction stuff pulled out. Took them 9 months for them to pull out all of that.

- 3:21:05 the game looks cynical, it being crackdown with destiny trappings. All guns.

3:22:07 the IGS collection

3:23:56 on the letters... soulless, right? The crowbat soul vs. soulless on re4 and re4r. On screwing with the audio, cherry picking, and coming back after killing enemies to make places look empty.

- 3:28:21 the power of no commentary gameplay.

- 3:29:09 people reacted really strongly to it. The average person doesn't understand the power of editing.
