What is the Dark Tournament?

The Dark Tournament is an illegal, vile, and dark martial arts competition organized by greedy human crime lords, and draws the attention of some of the most wretched demons of Demon Realm. Wealthy human gamblers and business owners come to the tournament for betting and entertainment from the fights, while the demons enter for the sake of blood and chance to wish for anything they want.

Who is running the Dark Tournament?

At the helm of this event, is the Supreme Demon King of the Demon Realm, Zaiko. Wanting some entertainment to see and to draw out many fighters throughout the Multiverse so see who can consider themselves as “The STRONGEST.”

RULES

What are the rules for the Dark Tournament?

The tournament begins with 24 individual fighters in a single-elimination bracket. The Supreme Demon King controls placement. Someone the Demon King wants dead might receive three brutal opponents consecutively while their favored fighter receives easier matchups instead.

- Single Elimination - Every match is one-on-one. Win and advance; lose and you're eliminated. 24 Fighters start Round 1 → Round 2: 16 → Quarter Finals: 8 → Semi Finals: 4 → Finals: 2 → Champion
- Ways To Lose - A fighter loses by 10-count knockout, surrender, or death. If knocked down, they must stand before the count to ten.
- Lethal Force Is Permitted - Killing an opponent does not result in disqualification. The Supreme Demon King can declare the match finished once a contestant is obviously dead or incapable of continuing.

- No Recovery Guarantee - Advancement does not necessarily mean fighters receive enough time to completely recover. Injuries carry into later rounds.
- Weapons and Supernatural Abilities Are Allowed - Swords, specialized weapons, demonic abilities, transformations, energy attacks, summoned creatures, etc. are permitted provided they belong to the contestant's normal arsenal. The tournament exists to determine who is strongest, not who follows conventional sporting etiquette.
- Special Match Conditions Can Be Imposed - In certain rounds, the Supreme Demon King can alter the arena or victory conditions: smaller rings, hazardous environments, no ring-outs, death matches, timed matches, weapon rounds, and so forth.
- Withdrawals are Allowed Before a Match! — A contestant who cannot or refuses to compete forfeits, and their scheduled opponent advances automatically.

Whoever wins the tournament, the Supreme Demon King will allow the winner to make a wish with the Demon Realm's Dragon Balls.
