

Name: _____ Student Number: _____

Everybody's Free (to Wear Sunscreen)

Giving Advice:

"You should..." "Why don't you...?" and using the verb like a 'command' for example, "Drink more water!" and "Don't eat junk food!" are ways of giving advice.

- Listen to this 'spoken-song' and complete the 11 examples of good advice.

1. Wear s_____
2. Enjoy the p_____ and b_____ of your youth
3. Don't worry about the f_____
4. Keep your old l_____ l_____,
5. Get plenty of c_____
6. Enjoy your b_____, use it every way you can
7. Do not read b_____ m_____, they will only make you feel ugly
8. Get to know your p_____, you never know when they'll be gone for good
9. Understand that f_____ come and go
10. Respect your e_____, don't expect anyone else to support you
11. Don't mess too much with your h_____ or by the time you're forty, it will look eighty-five