

Capture-and-collar deer study collecting valuable survival data June 2, 2018 South

Dakota

Aberdeen American News

... of the 550 deer that have been collared so far, there are currently about 260 deer with active collars... Gathering deer mortality and survival information from various study areas across the state will ultimately help GFP gain a better grasp on population trends and aid in future management decisions ...