

Announcing Free Services to Restaurants Impacted by Covid-19

For Immediate Release

Memphis, Tennessee - March 20, 2020 - Memphis startup, JustMy, is offering free services to restaurants across America impacted by Covid-19. JustMy will provide free content, video, and social media support beginning today to when dining rooms are allowed to reopen with an extra four months on top of that.

JustMy will help any restaurant in any American city communicate with the public on their services and what kinds of changes they are making to operations.

Jerome Robinson, Founder and CEO, says, "It's time to start finding creative ways to help businesses, non profits, educators, and the public to work through this crisis. This is why we are excited to support restaurants throughout America at this time. We are a digital company and can help any restaurant owner anywhere in our country."

Restaurant owners and managers anywhere in America can register for a free account at <https://justmy.com/>
