
My Dear Loulie

This is Monday morning I wrote a little to your Pa last night will write a few lines to you. I have cleaned all my clothes and have everything ready so if I get a telegram I am ready and will start immediately but I hope Grand Pa is better he is so strong that I feel like he will pull through. Fan will come and stay and take care of things. Aunt (?) offered to come and stay, or do anything she could do. I have been sewing for life for the last 3 weeks. I have made about 40 garments and have got a worsted quilt almost done. I tell you I have worked till I was so nervous that I was almost wild. Loulie if you have got enough money and you can make a pincushion for Aunt (?) without too much trouble or expense she would be tickled to death. They are in very close circumstances her sisters are sending her things all the time, they have sent so many nice things for spring enough clothes to do the children and lots for her. She is getting back all she ever gave Mrs. (?)

Well this is all I will try to write this time. Do write to me often and let me know how Grand Pa is. You can write a card anyway every other day. Take good care of your Pa and don't let him get sick if he does send for me just as quick as you can. With much love to you and Will both. I am every your loving Mother
