

it is Very important to have many ideas because if u have only one idea when creating something and it doesn't work your going to have a hard time figuring out what to do next

2.I learned always to have ideas when creating

How i became 100 artists

It was very interesting

Steve Jobs

I would create a charity for cancer

Steal like an artist

You need to be willing to get hate from people because you stole something that somebody else already did
