1. Department Council

1.1 Mandate

Students, faculty, and staff are partners in the functioning of the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures (hereafter Department). The Department Council (hereafter Council) is the principal mechanism for bringing together these constituencies to identify, discuss, and resolve matters of mutual concern. The specific mandate of the Council is:

- 1.1.1 To develop and recommend policies relevant to the Department within the context of general University policies.
- 1.1.2 To contribute actively to the operation and long-term planning of the Department through the creation of committees, working groups and other mechanisms as deemed appropriate.
- 1.1.3 To provide a forum for debate, discussion, and the dissemination of information on matters pertinent to the Department.

1.2 Authority of Council

In keeping with Toronto Metropolitan University's constitutional provisions for Department/School Councils (Senate Policy #45), the authority of Council is as follows:

- 1.2.1 The Council may initiate policy recommendations on any matter pertaining to the operation of the Department. If such policies have significance and effect only within the Department, approval by Council, and by the Chair of the Department and Dean of the Faculty of Arts, will provide authority for action. Such action will be reported by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts to Senate for its information.
- 1.2.2 If such policies have extra-Departmental ramifications, they shall be transmitted to the Dean of the Faculty of Arts for discussion with the Dean's Council of Chairs. If there are no ramifications beyond the Faculty, the matter may be settled there with the approval of the Dean of the Faculty of Arts, and shall be reported to Senate by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts for its information. If there are broader ramifications, the recommendation shall be brought to Senate for action.
- 1.2.3 In the event of a disagreement between Council and the Dean of the Faculty of Arts, or between Council and the Chair of the Department and the Dean of the Faculty of Arts, the disagreement will be referred by the disputants to the Provost and Vice-President, Academic. In the event of continuing disagreements, the matter shall be reported to the President for action. Should such a matter have bearing on the academic policy of the University as a whole, the matter shall be reported to Senate upon its resolution.
- 1.2.4 Without prejudice to the above protocols, the authority of Council embraces two additional principles:
 - 1.2.4.1 The Council will not enter into debate or take action on any matter that would jeopardize customary expectations of confidentiality in respect to students, faculty, or staff, or on matters of an explicitly contractual nature.
 - 1.2.4.2 The Council does not have the authority to override decisions made by Departmental committees that do not formally report to it, for example the Department Evaluation Committee (DEC) and Department Hiring Committee (DHC). Council does, however, have the authority to discuss such decisions and to provide advice, save in cases precluded by considerations of confidentiality and/or contractual requirements, as specified above. The determination of such restrictions is the responsibility of the Chair of the Department.

1.3 Membership

Voting membership on Department Council shall be comprised of the following:

1.3.1 All TFA members of the Department.

1.3.2 At least two CUPE Unit 1 contract lecturers in the Department, to be elected by all contract lecturers and from qualified CUPE Unit 1 contract lecturers every September. The number will be one CUPE Unit 1 contract lecturer per language stream offered in the undergraduate program housed in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures.

1.3.3 The Departmental Administrator and the Undergraduate Program Administrator.

1.3.4 Students to be elected from and by each year of the undergraduate degree program housed in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures. If adjustments are required, the order of precedence of representation shall be from fourth year to first year. 1.6.5.
