

You're the most consistent day trading youtuber and yet you still get overlooked.

Your inability to keep consistent views will disappear once you try this.

The Day Trading Addict did not take over the day trading niche for this long posting only regular youtube videos, a diversity is required.

The Day Trading Addict just like you is a good speaker and a good teacher. He has something you don't have though.

The missing support beam to the bridge to being the next big trading youtuber requires better video quality and a consistent posting of shorts.

There are levels to getting this done, but the first step to pull this off is having a behind the scenes video and content master that puts together high quality videos that grab the attention of new and lost traders trapped in the ether.

I know you're a father and full time options trader so you don't have time to do this yourself. You need to find someone who can do that.

The best part is you don't have to struggle to find one with all those qualities. That's because he's talking to you right now.

With my use of artificial intelligence combined with being in touch with the new generation of traders, you will simply be too consistent and too high quality to not become the next biggest trader on youtube.

I can create free examples for you, I just need to get a little more information on a quick 5-10 minute zoom meeting and we can get the ball rolling.

The history of Black Magic. Part 1 of a multiple part series explaining black magic. Black Magic's origin starts in Babylon. Islam says two angels were sent down to Babylon to show the people black magic in order to test the people from that day on if they were to use black magic. It was said it was forbidden by the angels. Moving on to the era of Ancient Egypt where black magic was at its most powerful stage. People were able to get in tune with the most dangerous demons in the world that would cause mischief if you did certain rituals. These rituals are simply performed to show the demon that the human will do as it says. The reason demons want this is because God placed humans higher than Demons which is the reason Satan got condemned away from heaven. Black magic rituals spread across the world and satanic religions formed that worship powerful demons including Satan himself for their own gain. It was used in Europe and it is shown that Constantine was into mithraism. Moving onto more modern colonial America it is shown that black magic is heavily used with all the witchcraft stories and the Salem Witch Trials. The trans atlantic slave trade spread black magic to the caribeans where modern day haitians use voodoo and black magic very often. In modern days we don't see black magic often in modern countries. They're very prominent in less developed places in Africa, the middle east, Asia, even South america. Stay careful and stay tuned in for the next part.
