

Poetry for Two Voices

1) Watch a short video clip modeling Choral Reading

<https://goo.gl/SokpJR>

2) Select one of the poems from the Paul Fleischman book

3) Practice reading the poem with your partner

4) Remember to practice good expressive reading (tempo, rhythm, pitch and juncture)

Poetry Idea Engine

1) Visit the Scholastic Poetry Idea Engine Website

http://teacher.scholastic.com/writewit/poetry/poetry_engine.htm

2) Select a type of poetry and write your own poem

3) Share your poem with a partner

Haiku
Limerick
Cinquain
Free Verse

Virtual Reality Cinquains

- 1) Open the Dive City Rollercoaster app on your device
- 2) Place the device in the Google Cardboard glasses
- 3) Watch the roller coaster simulation
- 4) Write a Cinquain poem describing how you felt riding the roller coaster

Poetweet & Twaiku Poetry

- 1) Review the guidelines & select a Poetweet or Twaiku
- 2) See how well you can write a poetweet or twaiku. Limit yourself to 140 characters. (Remember, each letter, number, punctuation mark, and space represents a single character.)
- 3) Write a draft of your poem on the provided form
- 4) Login to your Twitter account and post your poetweet/Twaiku on Twitter (remember to use #UMLitBlock)

Poetry idea Organizer

Name: _____

Type of Poem	More about This Poem	Ideas for My Classroom

Name: _____

Center Idea Organizer

Name of Center/ Activity	Ideas for My Classroom

Locate a Poetry resource and pin it to our group board...

DISCUSS & SHARE:

How could you use your resource to engage elementary students?

- 1) Login to your Pinterest account
- 2) Make sure you have accepted the invite
- 3) Pin your resource to our board