

IMS PTSO Meeting Minutes for November 9, 2023

Vice President Amy Hoelke called the meeting to order at 10:00am. In attendance were: Amy Hoelke, Jamie Lopez, Kim Woo, Christina Sturzinger, Kim McCartney, Mr. Deramo, Dr. Harding, Jenn Kutlenios, Erin Kosanovich, Megan DeFrancesco, Yang Liu, and Maria Castellanos.

Old Business

- November minutes were circulated to all in attendance. Christina motioned to approve the minutes. Maria seconded the motion. Motion was passed unanimously.

New Business

- Treasurers Report. We broke even on the Boo Bash (raised $244 and spent $244). We have a balance of $689.72.
- Halloween Social. The Boo Bash on October 26 went very well. We had almost 200 kids attend. The students had a lot of fun. The Key Club DJ'd and there were a lot of parent volunteers helping out.
- Teacher Appreciation. The lunch went very well-the teachers loved it! The next event will be in late December.
- Community Service. Thanksgiving on Every Table went well. Seven large boxes of donations were collected and delivered.
- Spirit Wear Shop. The spirit shop closed a few days ago. We will need volunteers to help sort when the items come in.
- Upcoming Events. We are looking to do an ice skating night at North Park, sell concessions during a few of the basketball games, and have a gingerbread house contest again in December. We are possibly looking to do a Longest Table event after the New Year.
- NA Foundation. Megan spoke about the NA Foundation. The NA Foundation provides grants to NA schools. IMS received a grant for a piano recently. They are holding their Distinguished Alumni Gala soon. The community is encouraged to attend.
- The next meeting is December 7, 2023.

Christina made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Jamie Lopez seconded the motion. Motion passed and the meeting was adjourned.
