

Jack y Los Frijoles Mágicos-Retelling

Livia [Assistant]: What was the story about, Jenny?

Jenny: The story was about a boy named Jack and his mother were poor and her mother sent him to get some money because she wanted to sell the cow so then when Jack went to sell the cow there was a little man so the man said that he would buy the cow. But then Jack said what are you going to pay with. The man said how are you going to pay and Jack said that he will pay with some magic beans. Jack gave the man the magic beans and took the cow home. So then, when Jack got home, Jack gave the beans to her mom but her mom didn't want beans, she wanted money, so her mom threw the beans out of the house and then the other morning when Jack wake up his room was so dark that Jack opened the window and saw a big... a big Livia: Tell me in Spanish.

Jenny: Un tallo gigante [a giant stem].

Jenny: So then Jack went out and climbed and climbed until he got to the castle. So then he saw...touched the door and there was a woman that opened him the door and the woman told him that there was a big giant that ate kids so then Jack said that he only wanted to get money. But then the woman let him in and the giant came so the woman hid Jack and the giant smelled the kid and Jack was so scared so when the giant got to sleep he got out and he walked and then... and then...

Dolores [Jenny's mom]: Si no puedes decirlo en español. [If you can't say it in Spanish.]

Livia: Yeah, si no puedes decirlo en español. [If you can't say it in Spanish.]

Jenny: Camino de puntitas. El gigante se despertó y Jack corrió e dijo a la mama que pase el hacha para cortar el tallo y el gigante murió cuándo se cayó y Jack y su mama fueron ricos para siempre. [He walked on his tippy toes. The giant awoke and Jack ran and told his mom to pass the ax to cut the stem and the giant died when he fell and Jack and his mom were rich forever.]
