Thank you for your transparent sharing and for being open to learning a new tool that is life-transforming. Learning to trust ourselves at a deeper level will help each of us be more resilient as significant change is happening all around us.

As you unfold your ideas- feel free to write a post in the Forum . You will also see the grid with all of your CVI Scores. Will be posted here later today!

Remember to also access and take your StrengthsFinder assessment. Look through the book that has the code to access the assessment online.

See you soon!
