

What is the name of the Twitter account? Do you know anything about this source already?
The name of the twitter account is Lois Beckett. I don't know anything about this source.

What can you learn about the person behind the Twitter account? (Although it's okay to start with something like the Twitter profile, you also need to go outside the post!)

I read her posts and found information on the Internet. She is a reporter at The Guardian. She described the protests against gun violence in elementary schools on Twitter.

What sources did you use to learn about the person behind the Twitter account? How do you know that these are good sources?

I used Google and Yahoo, and I searched for news about her release. I read and compare several articles. If the information is the same, it will increase authenticity. This approach will make me think more reliably.

Based on your lateral reading, do you think this account is a trustworthy source of information about the school walkouts? Explain.

I'm not sure if this account is a reliable source of information. This kind of thing depends on what people think. Sometimes the truth will appear in unexpected places.
