

Transfer Goals in Language Arts

Students will be able to independently use their learning to...

Listen critically to comprehend the speaker's message and intent.

Understand the power of words and images to transform lives and to provide insight into ourselves and the experiences of others – perspectives, cultures, and historical periods.

Communicate ideas effectively in discourse and oral presentations to suit various audiences and purposes.

Develop habits of authentic reading and reflective writing.

Comprehend, analyze, and appreciate a variety of increasingly complex texts.

Communicate ideas effectively in writing using appropriate media to suit a particular audience and purpose.

Expand and refine knowledge of vocabulary and conventions to better understand how language works in order to convey precise meaning.

Research, evaluate, and synthesize information in order to answer questions, solve problems, and deepen understanding.

Work effectively with and learn from others in a variety of situations.*

Think critically about information and claims encountered at school and beyond by seeking clarity, accuracy, sound evidence, good reasons, and fairness.*

* transfer goals that may be needed across all disciplines/content areas
