

★ Potential topics of interest:

- Bong Joon-ho
- Architecture/architecture movements
  - Women in architecture
  - Frank Lloyd Wright
- Costume design
- Horror films
  - Ari Aster
- Socialism
- Jane Austen
- Fashion eras
  - '70s
  - '90s
- Ancient Mesopotamia

Name: Lili Beard

Person/Event/Thing/Idea/Movement: Frank Lloyd Wright

What are five things you already know about this topic or event?

1. He was an architect
2. I've toured his Dana Thomas House in my hometown, Springfield.
3. His iconic "falling water" house
4. He was American
5. He lived in the 19th-20th centuries

How has the event or topic impacted the world?

He's impacted the world with his architecture, designing homes/buildings for iconic people. He is renowned for his work and the style he coined himself.

Why are people interested in learning about this topic or event?

People who are interested in architecture and design in general seek out his work.

What would you want to learn about this topic or event?

I would like to learn more about his techniques and styles and what made it so revolutionary.

How do you personally connect to this topic or event?

I personally connect to his work because I've toured one of the homes he designed and I have always loved it. His style is right up my alley. Architecture in general has always been a field of interest for me.

Person/Event/Thing/Idea/Movement: Costume design*What are five things you already know about this topic or event?

1. I've watched several video essays regarding specific movies and shows' costume designs.
2. I love the work of Mona May.
3. Audrey Hepburn's impact in this field.
4. How costume design can impact a particular work or evoke something about a given character.
5. How big of a role it can play in films and shows.

How has the event or topic impacted the world?

Costume design has transcended media, impacting fashion trends as well as people's perceptions of said media.

Why are people interested in learning about this topic or event?

Fashion lovers (such as myself) are interested in this topic because it specifically pertains to the field. Directors also play a role in this field.

What would you want to learn about this topic or event?

I would like to research further into its impact/importance and garner interest in others, given that it is often overlooked by the lay viewer.

How do you personally connect to this topic or event?

I personally connect to this topic given my love of fashion and film.

Person/Event/Thing/Idea/Movement: Jane Austen*What are five things you already know about this topic or event?

1. I have read a couple of her novels and seen film/show adaptations of her work as well.
2. My favorite movie is Emma. (2020) as well as Clueless (1995), which is based on this story.
3. Her witty storytelling
4. She was British.
5. She lived in the 18th century.

How has the event or topic impacted the world?

Her work has stood the test of time, beloved by people of both the past and present. She was also remarkable for being a well loved female author during her time.

Why are people interested in learning about this topic or event?

Book lovers and romance lovers adore Jane Austen, so these groups want to learn more about her as a person and the tangible importance of her work.

What would you want to learn about this topic or event?
I would like to learn more about Austen as a person and her motives/inspirations behind the stories she wrote.
How do you personally connect to this topic or event?
I personally connect with Austen because I've loved the story of Emma all my life, not only the movie/adaptations, but the novel as well.