BASIC CAMP RULES

Be where you are supposed to be – when you are supposed to be there (follow the RBC Schedule):

- All meals, meetings, and activities are mandatory.
- Campers are required to stay in the sleeping quarters from lights out until morning rising.
- Everyone is required to stay in camp until all pictures are taken and awards are presented following the conclusion of the rodeo on the last day of camp.
- This camp will be operated as a closed camp. Participation is limited to registered campers and camp staff only. Campers must stay in the camp boundaries at all times.
- No one is to leave camp without permission from the Camp Director.
- Camp Director reserves the right to dismiss any camper on the basis of improper conduct or attitude.

Dress in a manner that is glorifying to God:

- Long sleeves and hats are recommended...mornings can be cool.
- Boots will be required for instructional activities.
- No heel downs.
- No tank tops of any kind.
- No bike shorts or with short shorts over.
- Shorts MUST be no shorter than the tips of your fingertips.
- Western attire is required for Sunday Rodeo.
- Please bring enough clothes for clean clothes every day.

Respect other people and their belongings:

- No fighting, no hazing, no foul language.
- No stealing. If it isn't yours – leave it alone.
- Every camper is responsible for his or her personal belongings.
- No roping of any person is allowed.

No illegal stuff:

- All articles that campers were informed on the WHAT NOT TO BRING to camp list (drugs, alcohol, tobacco, electronic equipment, fireworks, etc.).
- If discovered, articles must be turned over to the Camp Director.

No guys in or around the girls sleeping area – No girls in or around the guys sleeping area.

- No exceptions.

You break it you bought it:

- All damages to 3WC or other camper's personal property must be paid for before leaving camp.

Cell Phones:

- Cell phone use will only be allowed during camper's evening "free time". That free time is typically 5 PM to 5:30 PM (times can vary a bit). All other times NO CELL PHONE usage will be allowed and camper's cell phones will be in the possession and control of Team Leaders. Campers needing to call parents during non-free time can do so by borrowing a cell phone from the camp director. Parents or campers not comfortable with or willing to abide by the above rule are welcome to leave cell phones at home. Parents needing to reach campers can do so at any time by calling Camp Director Jen Roe 316-570-1344.
