Franz Bakery offers check to The Salvation Army as part of holiday season Round-Up Campaign at the registers

(Portland, OR) – On Friday, Dec. 20, at 9 a.m., Franz Bakery will award a significant check to The Salvation Army Portland Metro as part of a Round-Up Campaign that started on Nov. 30 at 63 Franz Bakery Outlet Stores. Franz customers were able to support The Salvation Army by rounding up their purchase to the next dollar, and all proceeds in all outlet stores were tallied for donation. The amount expected to be presented tomorrow is in excess of $10,000. The check presentation will be held at Franz Bakery, 340 NE 11th Ave. in Portland.

Phil Smith, Franz Bakery Director of DSD Sales and leader of the Franz Outlet Store teams, noted before the campaign that Franz was looking forward to raising money for ‘this great organization.’

“With over 118 years of baking in the communities we serve, giving back has always been a focus for Franz,” Smith said. “We were honored to raise funds with our customers for The Salvation Army during this holiday season, through the ‘round up’ program in our Franz Bakery Outlet Stores.”

The Salvation Army Portland Metro will use the funds to support its core programs in the metro area, which includes four food pantries, three year-round shelter operations, and more.

About The Salvation Army – The Salvation Army annually helps 30 million Americans overcome poverty, addiction, and economic hardships through a range of social services. By providing food for the hungry, emergency relief for disaster survivors, rehabilitation for those suffering from drug and alcohol abuse, and clothing and shelter for people in need, The Salvation Army is doing the most good at 7,600 centers of operation around the country. In the first-ever listing of “America’s Favorite Charities” by The Chronicle of Philanthropy, The Salvation Army ranked as the country’s largest privately funded, direct-service nonprofit.
