Bob Yoder announces his retirement from CSC of Southern Hancock County

NEW PALESTINE, IN (February 12, 2024) – Mr. Bob Yoder will retire from his assistant superintendency effective August 31, 2024. The CSCSHC Board of School Trustees approved Mr. Yoder's announcement at its February 12 meeting.

Mr. Yoder has amassed a stellar educational career. He has been an educator and leader for 53 years. He served in the districts of Daleville Community Schools, Southwestern Consolidated Schools, and the Community School Corporation of Southern Hancock County as a teacher, driver's education instructor, building-level administrator, and district-level administrator. However, Mr. Yoder is most proud of his 41 years as assistant superintendent of the Community School Corporation of Southern Hancock County. "As I reflect on the years spent in education, I am grateful for the meaningful relationships I have built with students, parents, colleagues, and community members. The support that I have experienced throughout my career has been invaluable, and I am proud to have been part of such an amazing community," shared Yoder.

School Board Members approved Mr. Yoder's retirement, offered their sincere appreciation and admiration for his service, and wished him the very best as he moves into retirement. Congratulations to Mr. Yoder and we all wish him the very best upon his retirement in August of 2024.
