

If our people will faithfully attend the temple the Lord will bless them in the following ways: greater love and unity in the home, businesses and professions will prosper, their children will be saved, and angels will protect them.

-Elder Vaughn J. Featherstone