

1. Due to changes made by Longwood University in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, has the satisfaction rate of the college experience decreased?
2. On a scale from 0-10, 0 being dissatisfied and 10 being the most satisfied, how satisfied are you with involvement on campus this semester?
3. Is your sense of belonging on campus increased by the big social events on campus?
4. These questions discuss the social aspect of college, which is known as 'the college experience'. By seeing how much students rely on these social events for satisfaction, we can test whether satisfaction rates have gone down due to social events being canceled on campus.
5. Best practices for survey research involve: clean and concise questions, having specific goals, making participants aware of the study, relevant questions, overall flow/time requirement for a survey, and good question structure.
