

The Initial/tentative draft of the schedule will be posted by tomorrow night (Tuesday). It could have been posted by now except for the fact that coaches who promised their teams would be attending text me at the last minute to cancel. I say the schedule is an initial/tentative because there will be changes. I'm only a phone call or text away from having to make changes to the schedule. It's important that coaches, and parents check this page Friday afternoon to check for updates. The "OFFICIAL" schedule will be posted on the website. Don't leave home without checking for updates. As usual, I received numerous requests for special/tailored schedule that fits perfectly with each team's scheduling needs. I could not possibly grant all requests even if I was inclined to! If you live in the Columbus area or Dayton, expect to play on Friday! I understand that no one wants to play on Friday night or early Saturday or Sunday morning games. You can't run a 150 team tournament with no Friday or Saturday morning games! Unless there is a clear error on my part, I will not be making changes to the schedule for convenience purposes. Coaches should either get hotel rooms or plan to do a lot of driving back and forth. If you coach multiple teams, I would suggest you plan to get a back up coach to coach the teams if you have multiple teams playing at the same time.

For those coaches who will be bringing their entry fees with them, please don't make my staff have to chase you down all weekend looking for your fees! You know you owe them so find us and get them paid before your first game. We will not allow your team to start the game without full payment. Also, coaches, players and parents need to be on their best behavior! We will not tolerate coaches, players and parents who are out of control. We will expel anybody who we feel are out of control. Coaches, you are responsible for your people! Don't allow a parent make you loose a game because of their behavior. The tournament is sold out!. I'm happy with the number (150+) and the competition! I hope you, your players and fans are excited about the event! We will do our best to make this an enjoyable experience!
