

Installing the Bluebird Languages app

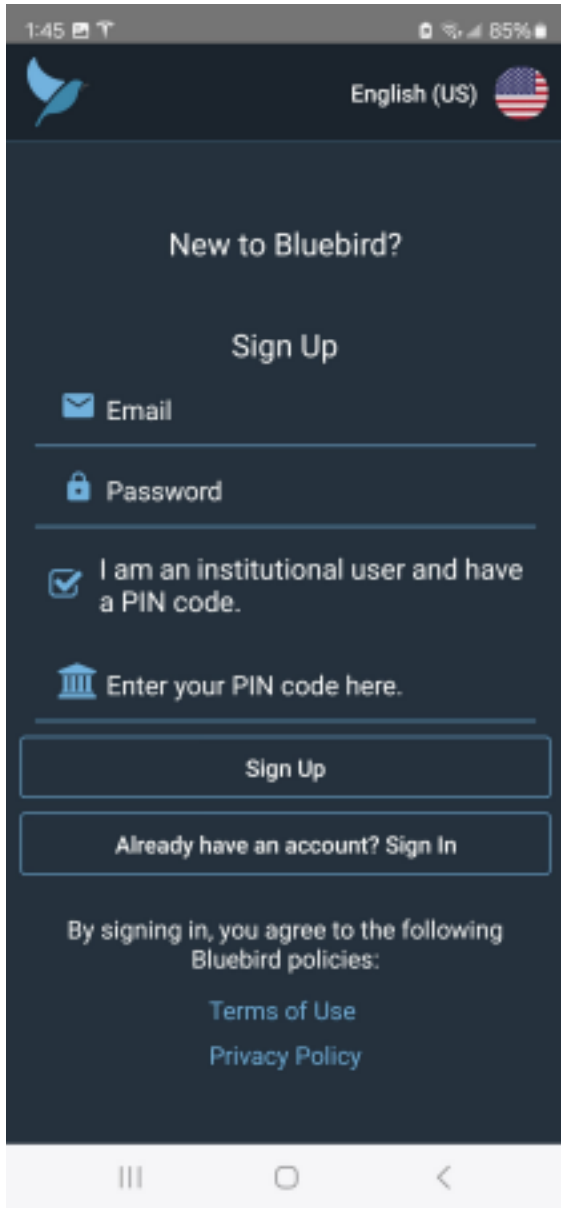

1. Download and install the app from either Google Play or the App Store.

2. Open the app and select the blue “Get Started” button

A screenshot of the Bluebird app's sign-up screen. The status bar at the top shows the time 1:46, signal strength, and 85% battery. The app's logo is in the top left, and the language is set to English (US) with a US flag icon in the top right. The main heading is "New to Bluebird?". Below it is a "Sign Up" section with an "Email" input field, a "Password" input field, and a checkbox labeled "I am an institutional user and have a PIN code." There are two buttons: "Sign Up" and "Already have an account? Sign In". At the bottom, it states "By signing in, you agree to the following Bluebird policies:" with links for "Terms of Use" and "Privacy Policy". The Android navigation bar is at the very bottom.

3. Check the box “I am an institutional user and have a PIN code”

A screenshot of the Bluebird mobile app's sign-up screen. The interface is dark-themed. At the top, there's a status bar with the time 1:45, signal strength, and 85% battery. Below that is a header with the Bluebird logo (a blue bird) on the left and 'English (US)' with an American flag icon on the right. The main content area starts with the text 'New to Bluebird?' followed by a large 'Sign Up' button. Below this are three input fields: 'Email' with an envelope icon, 'Password' with a lock icon, and a checkbox labeled 'I am an institutional user and have a PIN code.' which is checked. Below the checkbox is a field for 'Enter your PIN code here.' with a building icon. At the bottom of the form are two buttons: 'Sign Up' and 'Already have an account? Sign In'. Below these buttons, it says 'By signing in, you agree to the following Bluebird policies:' followed by links for 'Terms of Use' and 'Privacy Policy'. The very bottom of the screen shows the Android navigation bar with three icons: a square, a circle, and a triangle.

4. Enter your email, a password that you don't use anywhere else, and the PIN code "TRAV"
5. Click "Sign Up"
