

•🐟•Pond Diving 2.0•🐟•

Rules and Information

The SPN Fanfic Pond will now be hosting monthly Author Q&A chats, exclusive to pond members only! Not a pond member? Joining is easy! Just fill out this form here.

Pond members will have an opportunity to ask questions of their fellow authors to hopefully learn something new! Whether it's learning a new writing tip, or a fun fact about an author you admire, this is the space for knowledge! Participation is not a requirement, but is encouraged. This is meant to spark creative conversation and to support our fellow authors!

Q&A sessions will be hosted live once a month in the Discord server and will last roughly an hour. Anyone is free to ask the featured author questions as long as you follow the rules here in this document. We will feature authors from all ships, tropes, and pairings to offer members a wide array of expertise to engage with!

Rules

1. Be respectful. This should go without saying, but don't be rude to one another or the author, try your best not to talk over one another, and be patient for the author's response to your question.
2. Authors are not obligated to answer anything that makes them uncomfortable.
3. No NSFW images or text, as some Pond members are under the age of 18, and we want all members to be welcome. (If chat turns NSFW, we have a whole separate channel we can move to!)

Who gets featured as an author and why.

The purpose of this project is to introduce authors from a wide array of tropes, ships, and different areas of expertise to offer a space where Pond members have the opportunity to ask for advice and learn directly from the source! Authors may be chosen at random, but again, participation is not a requirement. If we reach out to you and you are not interested in being interviewed, that is totally fine!

If you have any questions, please contact Manta Ray Liz (@xpurdyglambertx)!