

Directions: Answer the following reading comprehension questions about Chapter 3 of Clodia, Fabula Criminalis.

1. What does Clodius pull out of the bag he was carrying (when he met Catullus in the last chapter)? How does he react to what he has in there?
2. Why, do we learn, was he at Clodia's house? Why might he have been there otherwise?
3. What does Clodius see when he looks in the mirror? What does he call himself?
4. Why does Clodia say she isn't upset about the news she just broke to Catullus?
5. What two different noises does Catullus hear? What does he want to know about the first one? What do you think is the explanation?
6. What does Clodia have with her in the garden? How does she feel about this thing?
7. To where does Clodius go? Who is he there to see? What do you think is going on and why is he dressed the way he is?