Subject: You're Invited! Learn about an innovative way to engage [PARTNER] students

Hello [RECRUITING CONTACT/HR MANAGER],

[PARTNER INSTITUTION] is excited to highlight an exciting way for you to connect with highly-motivated students and recent grads from institutions across the country, including [PARTNER INSTITUTION]. Micro-Internships are short-term, paid professional projects designed to serve as a bridge to future employment opportunities.

Please join representatives from Parker Dewey for 30 minutes on [DAY, DATE, TIME], to hear:

- an overview on how Micro-Internships work,
- examples of the types of projects students can complete, and
- how these short-term projects create equitable access to professional careers in our community.

Whether you're in need of on-demand project support, looking to expand your talent pipeline, or reach new talent demographics, Micro-Internships are a valuable tool. This demo and walkthrough will show how this scalable concept supports your organization as well as our students and recent grads.

Click here if you're ready to post a Micro-Internship now, or click the following link to register for the webinar and learn more: https://info.parkerdewey.com/micro-internships-overview.

We look forward to seeing you virtually on [DATE]!

Sincerely,
[Sending Department Info]
