Abstract

Write down here your paper's abstract in one paragraph, in Italic style of font, no more than 150 words. The abstract is not an "introduction", nor the conclusion of the discussion. InsApplication of Problem Based Learning in Islamic Education Subjects in an Effort to Prevent Academic Procrastination in Adolescents Read, it should contain, but not limited to: (1) the main question and the background of the discussed issue; (2) the research position; (3) how the question is discussed in the paper; and (4) the main result of the discussion. Other important matters discussed in the paper that significantly contribute to the final result of the research may be noted here, but you have to consider, however, the limited space of the abstract.

[Put here your Indonesian version of the Abstract. It is not obligatory, but we do appreciate if you could provide us with the translation of the abstract in Bahasa Indonesia.]

Keywords: mention only specific concepts [word or phrase], 3-5 concepts, truly conceptual words, and not too general ones.

A. Introduction [the First Section must be "Introduction"; Typed in Bold, List-style with ABCs Alphabets]

Your text is here, in 12pt font-size, 1 line-spacing; don't add space before and/or after paragraph. It is much better to not format your text in a specific technique, instead, just leave it plain except that you really need to type certain words in a "special method", or to emphasize certain word or words. Italic is a must in typing non-English word. Arabic word is transliterated based on ICIS style, which is available for download in PDF file format [url:].

Please explore in more words the background of your paper and your current research position among other research on related themes. You should discuss here as well your research's relations with those of other researchers; literature review, especially on most relevant, newly academic works published in high reputation journals, is a must.

To put it another way, please try to answer at least two questions: (1) why you believe that your research question is such an important to answer; and (2) how other scholars have or have not answered, or how you think your answer would be a contribution to the existing scholarship on the subject.

A detailed description of your methods in doing the research is not necessary to write down in this section, but if you think you have to do so, you may mention it slightly in one or two sentences.

A little bit of exploration on the flows of your discussion and the expected final results will be good points for closing this introduction section.

B. Discussion

Here you may discuss every aspect of the issue one by one. It is necessary to build argument and to provide original data discussed and compared to research and works of other scholars. In other words, the way to discuss an issue here is by combining the data and the discussion. So, it is not recommended to separate merely data description from the analysis on it.

Every quotation is written down in a specific way that can be identified as a “quotation” different from your original text. At the end of every quotation, you have to put its reference[s] in bodynote style. A reference must also be put in the end of every citation that paraphrasing ideas from someone’s works. If citation is taken from a book, it must be like this (Reşit Haylamaz, 2014, p. 25), and the subsequent citation is like this (Reşit Haylamaz, 2014, p. 20). A book with volumes (Wahbah al-Zuhaili, 1985, p. 3), cited in a subsequent note (Wahbah al-Zuhaili, 1985, p. 5). A book from CD Room (Pustakaridwana, n.d.) and You must provide the book details in the footnote. Footnote is also used to provide detailed information about the prophetic traditions (H.R Muslim),¹ further discussion,² and ended with the source of the information.

Examples of references other than book are paper in a journal (Moch Nur Ichwan, 2001, p. 143-145), or this journal (Carlos Ulibarri, 200, p. 5), websites 1 (Anwar, n.d.), website 2 (LaninBot, 2018), website unknown to the author (“Kekhalifahan Abbasiyyah,” 2019), magazines and newspapers (Nyein Pyae Sone, 2018), reports (Edelemen and Burke, 2008, p. 4), book chapters (Edelemen, et.,al, 2008, p. 5), a master thesis (Nadirsyah Hosen, 2005, p. 57), a PhD thesis (Kevin William Fogg, 2012, p. 123-125), CD Room (Pustakaridwana, n.d.),³ interview (Azra, 2018).

It is possible to add sections as needed. A section may consist of several sub-sections, typed in bold-italic and numbered list style, like the following example.

1. Sub-Section as Part of its Parent Section

You do not need to add any special indentation in typing body text under sub-section heading. The body text here is typed just like any other body text.

2. Another Sub-Section

² You can discuss and explain in more detail the substance of the sentence above (Reşit Haylamaz, 2014, p. 20 and Wahbah al-Zuhaili, 1985, p. 3)

³ Detail your reference: Ibn Hajar al-Asqalani, Fath al-Ba>ri bi Syarh S^ah{i>h al-Bukha>ri>, jilid 1, 235

Although you may need another sub-heading under this “sub-section”, it is strongly not recommended to do so. Instead, please arrange your discussion and explanation in narrative paragraphs. In addition, listing style of text paragraph is also not suggested.

2. Figure and Other Illustrations

If you need to include any table, figure, image, or other illustration, please provide a high resolution picture file as an attachment for your submission file. We will be very happy, however, if you can convert such illustration into narratives.

C. Conclusion

Please provide here your remarks as closing statement. It could be a final conclusion from your discussion and analysis and your recommendations for further research project. In this section as well you may give your acknowledgment for people and parties whose supports make your research possible.
