

Lecture Introduction

This chapter is designed to understand the socio-anthropological perspectives of Bangladesh, especially social structure and stratification, and their relevance to Bangladesh. Deliberate the cultural evaluation, various cultural elements, and practices of Bangladesh and the indigenous community of Bangladesh, and finally understand the impact of globalization on Bengali culture and society.