Jack Stratton

"I run a digital label. That's what I DO. That's who I- it's who I AM now."

Jack Stratton (aka Mushy Krongold, Vulfmon, DJ Paradiddle) is Vulfpeck's founder, maestro, manager, bandleader, drummer, keyboardist, and guitarist. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan's Performing Arts Technology program. During college, he formed big-band funk group Groove Spoon and experimented with multimedia. The concept of Vulfpeck was inspired by an interview with Reinhold Mack he read, and put into action as a recording session for a friend's thesis project in early 2011. Jack's innovative fusion of composition, comedy, and contemporary digital strategy continues to get funkier.

Theo Katzman

"I invented a technology, and they stole it from me— the guys in Stuttgart—!"

Theo Katzman is Vulfpeck's drummer and guitarist. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan's Jazz & Contemplative Studies major. He played in dance-punk band My Dear Disco until 2009, released his debut solo album Romance Without Finance in 2011, & toured as Darren Criss's opening act, drummer, and musical director on his Listen Up! Tour in 2013. He is an extremely talented multi-instrumentalist, vocalist, and songwriter, and his new solo album Heartbreak Hits was released in January 2017.

While in college, he played with Jack's band Groove Spoon alongside Antwaun Stanley, and eventually joined Ella Riot (fka My Dear Disco). He was a featured player on the 2012 debut record of Irish fusion group The Ollam, and played on Darren Criss's Listen Up! Tour alongside Jack and Theo. He is regarded as one of the best Fender bass players of his age bracket.

In college, he played in Charlene Kaye's band and booked shows at campus venue Canterbury House (including Groove Spoon shows). Nomadic and enigmatic, since graduation he's lived in Texas, Utah, and Michigan, with stints as a park ranger, research assistant, care worker, and music teacher. He toured America and Ireland with the Ollam in 2013 and 2014 alongside Theo and Joe, and has released solo albums of covers and his own compositions.

VULFAQ

These are the questions that people ask, and the answers that I give.

Q: Can Antwaun/Joey/Cory/I become an official member of the band?

A: No. Vulfpeck is the core four plus featured players.

Q: Can Vulfpeck come to [city]?

A: Yes, they can. Whether they will is a question for their booking agent. Thus far they have tended not to play in smaller markets and stick to the biggest cities, but that may change in the future.

Q: Can Vulfpeck collab with [musician]?

They seem to like keeping it low-key and close to home, based on their current choices for featured players, so I dunno.

BUT ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE IF WE TRULY BELIEVE

Q: Where do they live?

A: Theo and Jack live in LA. Joe is based out of Ann Arbor. Woody lives in Chicago.

Q: How do I tell Vulfpeck how much I love them?

A: Send them an email.

Q: Who is Vulfmon?

A: Vulfmon is a professor of electronic music at the University of Halle-Wittenberg in Germany, and the advisor/A&R man of “the Vulfpeck.” He is also a completely fictional alter-ego of Jack Stratton.

Q: Who wrote [song]?

A: Either Jack or Woody. Unless it’s “Kuhmilch 74 BPM” or “Game Winner,” in which case it was Joey, or “Back Pocket,” in which case it was Theo.

Q: Who makes the videos/does the social media/mixes the albums/does the graphic design/markets the band/manages the band/does the accounting?

A: Jack Stratton.

Q: How do you know the Vulfpeck guys?

A: I am a high-level freakazoid incapable of enjoying a band calmly and reasonably like a normal person.
