

Employment during COVID-19

Some states have created job portals:

New York Department of Labor job portal:

<https://nyhirenow.usnlx.com>

New Jersey Job Portal:

<https://jobs.covid19.nj.gov/?Facets.filterbox.filter0=%5B%5D>

Industries that are hiring: retail, delivery, military, taxes, remote learning and health care→ those that are meeting the demands of the pandemic

Industries that are Actively Hiring:

Health Care and Health Retail

Health Care Workers →

Glassdoor is a resource to check: employers have been posting jobs listings for scientists and data specialists.

Drugstores→

CVS: Hiring 50,000 store associates, home delivery drivers and distribution center employees.

Walgreens: Hiring 9,500 customer service associates, pharmacy technicians and shift leads.

Grocery Stores

These are essential businesses→ hiring the most to meet high demand!

Kroger: Hiring 20,000 workers

Albertsons (Owns Safeway, United Supermarkets, and other grocers): Hiring 30,000 new store associates

Food and Convenience Stores

7-Eleven: Hiring 20,000 new store employees

Pizza Hut: Hiring for more than 30,000 positions

Dominos: Hiring 10,000 positions right now

Retail, Shipping and Delivery

Walmart: Aims to hire 150,000 new temporary associates to work in stores, distribution centers and fulfillment centers

Amazon: Hiring 100,000 new warehouse and delivery workers

Discount Retail Chains→

Dollar General and Dollar Tree: Hiring thousands of workers

Grocery Delivery Companies→

Instacart: Hiring 300,000 shoppers as independent contractors

Home Improvement Companies→

Lowe's: Hiring 30,000 new workers

Telecommunications

Outschool (online marketplace for online classes): Hiring 5,000 new teachers to start offering classes.

Zoom, Slack, and Microsoft (videoconferencing apps): Have hundreds of job listings

Unemployment Insurance

New York States: Hiring workers to process Employment Insurance Claimants

Companies with the most job openings:

1. 7-Eleven
2. Army National Guard
3. KPMG
4. Amazon
5. Genentech
6. Lowe's
7. HCA Healthcare
8. Intuit
9. Nepris
10. Whole Foods