BURNT THICKET THEATRE

NOMINATIONS FOR THE BTT BOARD OF DIRECTORS 2026-2027

The following Director in 2nd year of a 4th term has agreed to let their name stand for 1st year of a 5th term:

BRENDAN ANDREWS Financial Advisor, Assante Financial Board Member 2019

The following Director in 1st year of a 4th term has agreed to let their name stand for 2nd year of a 4th term:

JESSICA ISAAK Exec. Assistant to VP Provincial Clinical & Support Services, Sask Health President Emerit 2026,
Pastor, Hampton Free Methodist Church President 2023, VP 2021, Member 2020

The following Directors in 1st year of 3rd term have agreed to let their names stand for 2nd year of 3rd terms:

ROD SCHELLENBERG Lead Pastor, Hepburn MB Church Board Member 2021

The following Director in 2nd year of 1st term has agreed to let their name stand for 1st year of a 2nd term:

MARILOU MOWCHENKO Executive Assistant, IG Wealth Management Secretary, 2026, Member 2024

The following Director in 1st year of 1st term has agreed to let their name stand for 2nd year of a 1st term:

ASHLYNN REIMER Radiation Safety Specialist, USask President, 2026, Member 2025

The following individuals have agreed to let their names stand:

SETH FREEMAN Treasurer, appointed by the Board in May, 2026

[Bio coming soon]

LEEANN GERVAIS for Board Member

LeeAnn works as a Learning Specialist at Dumont Technical Institute supporting students in their learning journey. She serves on the IPL, The Indigenous Pastoral and Lay Ministry Education program for the Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon. LeeAnn wrote the teacher curriculum and provided history about the Métis for the play Apples & Train Tracks, which BTT co-produced.

BRANDON WEBBER for Board Member

Brandon Webber leads 10Four, a strategy and design office in Saskatoon. He also advises startups in the Co.Labs incubator and runs POP POP, an ongoing series of talks for Saskatoon's creative community. Brandon was first involved with BTT in its Calgary days and recently reconnected with the company in Saskatoon.

The following Directors have concluded their terms and we heartily thank them for their service!

ADAM BOURASSA, Secretary since 2020
JESSICA ISAAK, concluded role as President (since 2023), remaining as President Emerit