2021-2022 English IV Unit 3 (Suggested Duration: 25 days)

Dates: 11/8-12-17

Fall Curriculum Based Assessment #2 12/13-12/17

Unit Title	Facing the Future, Confronting the Past
Unit Summary	In this unit, students will learn the conventions and story elements associated with classic Renaissance era theater in England. Specifically, students will read, discuss, and analyze the Shakespearean tragedy Macbeth to discover and evaluate the many ironies, moral dilemmas, and ambiguous truths presented by the author in the play. In addition to reading and discussion, students will write at least one formal literary analysis essay, and create a modern adaptation of an important scene from the play.
Big Ideas	 William Shakespeare and other Renaissance authors used unique structures and elements in their dramatic form of storytelling. In a complex story like Macbeth, underlying character motivations and moral dilemmas in the story reveal universal truths. Poets and essayists use patterns of language to reveal their truths. Written and oral literary analysis expands the reader's ability to understand the author's craft as it reveals universal themes. Commonly used systems like MLA formatting helps writers communicate clearly with the larger academic community. Reading texts that explore the influence of the past on the present helps readers develop an understanding of the theme.
Essential Questions	 What qualities of literature from the distant past seem vibrant and relevant to readers today? How much does the past determine the future? What determines the future, fate or a person's own actions? When does ambition become destructive rather than constructive? What are the essential steps of the research process? How do perceptions of gender roles change over time?
Core Competencies	Formative: Students will demonstrate understanding of Macbeth through speaking, reading, writing, and thinking. students will read aloud and create scenes students will discuss quandaries presented in the play students will read, watch, and respond to scenes from the play Students will engage in meaningful and respectful discourse, participating collaboratively, offering ideas or judgements that are purposeful in moving the group toward goals. Students will use the writing process (brainstorming, drafting, revising, editing, and publishing) to create a detailed literary analysis students will develop a habit of writing in a writer's notebook to express emotions, gather ideas, and synthesize learning with increasing rigor. Summative: Students will use ideas from Macbeth to create a poem, "missing" scene, song, rap, comic book, or other creative piece. Students will research and present aspects of Shakespeare and Elizabethan theatre to teach others.
Vocabulary	Shakespearean Drama: Theatre history and culture: groundling, Globe Theatre, New Globe Theatre, Renaissance, Elizabethan/Jacobean, gallery Literary terms: exposition, aside, soliloquy, monologue, repetition, rising/falling action, climax, allusion, tragedy, metaphor, resolution, tragic hero/tragic flaw, tone, conflict/dilemma, protagonist, antagonist, dramatic irony, verbal irony, theme, comic relief
