

The purpose of this F.V. is to make people go through his welcome free course now, make them want to go through it now, don't put it off.

SL: The beginning of the way

Hello (Name),

Congratulations, you are just one click away from having access to the entire course. But first...

Do you know the reason why I am giving you this course as a gift?

The truth is, I want you () and everyone in this great family to know the truth, because only by being aware of it can you achieve what you desire.

Since we were young, we have been fed with false ideas about investments, and they make us distance ourselves from them, causing us to miss the opportunity to learn about them and use them to our advantage.

When you finish watching the course, you will be angry for not knowing this before, you will be enraged for every day of your life that has passed without you being aware of all this, and it's normal, I was too. But you should be happy because now you can use to your advantage all that has been hidden from you for so long.

Discover the truth NOW. Don't you think you've lived enough time in lies?

Sincerely, (It's good to have your own signature that characterizes you, the same in every email)
