Appearance Details

Tater Tots is a young girl who stands tall at 4'11 for her age. She has a slim and slightly athletic build. She has deep crimson eyes and usually wears make up to accentuate this. She has braces which she always will choose pink and teal rubber bands for. Her most iconic feature is her side ponytail that she always wears with a big bow. She is very much into fashion but mostly for clowns. She exclusively dresses like one, believing you dress for success in what you want to do in life. Though, on occasions she can be seen wearing regular pajamas.

Personality

Born a true performer, Tater is outgoing, personable, friendly, and loves a good joke. She loves watching pokemon contests and any form of theater. She can be quite overbearing though with her jokes and has a hard time reading the room if things go sour. She can not sit through long silences and will always opt to start talking when this happens. Tater does have a bit of a moral gray area as she is still learning to respect authority, and often chooses to pick and choose what and whom she listens to. She is always down for pranks and a good laugh.

History

Tater Tots grew up in a family of performers. Her mother, Berry Marbles, was a clown who once did ballet and her father a magician clown, named Toys Fer' Tots. He jokingly thought that the name Tater was a great name for her and wrote it on her birth certificate but when he found out it was official he got quite the talking to from her mother.

When poor Tater was 11 years old her whole world came HYONKING down. One stormy night on the way home from work, Tater's parents were carpooling with 10 other clowns. They hit a puddle and suddenly the car hydroplaned, and was sent flying off the road. The accident was brutal, big shoes, clown noses, joke flowers were everywhere. The officers said that there were too many clowns packed into the car, 6 past its regulated amount of 6. Tater's parents did not make it out of the burning clown car. She was given her fathers nose and her mothers shoes as they could only recover those items in good condition.

She was eventually sent to Sunshine Orphanage where she spent most of her time there. Tater took her parents death hard. She became a mime for a solid 2 years. Only acting out her needs. Until one day she met a special ducklett. This ducklett made her smile once again and made her laugh. It was nice to feel so loved and understood while so much change was occurring in her life. Being the performer she is, she kept her parents memory alive by keeping up her clown heritage, bringing cheer to the orphanage and laughter.
