Ten of Swords, Reversed

It's been extremely difficult for you, Aries, and it feels like the best thing that can be said about it all is "at least it's over." Sometimes, endings are necessary and create a clear path for healing. I know that it's hard to see past the intense pain and grieving process that you're going through, and I absolutely want you to give space to those feelings and honor them. But once you've honored them, release them. What have you learned from this experience? When you've started to heal, you'll notice there is something new just on the horizon.

Taurus

Seven of Wands, Reversed

You're feeling very defensive, Taurus. For good reason because you're dealing with a lot of competition. The challenges to your position and quarreling around you have left you feeling like there are some big forces aligning against you. Understandably, that feeling is triggering a large amount of anxiety for you, especially since it feels like your boundaries are being ignored and you're being misunderstood. How can you best represent and protect yourself? How can you be your own fierce self-advocate?

Gemini

Things feel so magical right now, Gemini. You've been noticing tiny moments of serendipity all around you. If you make time to indulge your curiosity, you may find artistic inspiration in some odd places. Don't get in the way of your feelings today and instead allow yourself to bring some of your unabashed enthusiasm forward. Being able to dream big is a way of being emotionally vulnerable, and while it asks a lot of us it can also bring big rewards. Don't lose your sense of wonder today.

Cancer

Ace of Pentacles

You're surrounded by a lot of opportunities. If you're able to make some investments of time and resources you'll be able to make a lot out of them, Cancer. It's a good time to start acquiring new leads and planting seeds. Be thoughtful about where you dedicate your energy and your resources. Consider your long range goals, and understand what is necessary to get you there. To create the world your future will be born into you'll need to direct your intention, focus, and drive.

Leo

The High Priestess, Reversed

You should spend some time reconnecting with your intuitive side, Leo. There are a lot of things going on around you, including secrets being kept. You need to be able to trust your instincts and ultimately yourself so you can navigate it all. Your best guides are your inner wisdom and compassion. Spend time in meditation so that you can experience what the still, small voice inside of you has to say about what surrounds you. The wisdom you have been looking for is within you.

Virgo

Ace of Swords

You've had a huge breakthrough - a big "a-ha!" moment that has brought clarity and focus to a situation that has been in the forefront of your thoughts. You've been looking for the last pieces of the puzzle that would bring your understanding together. The insight you gained after the realization has illuminated many hidden truths, some of which compel you to set some things right in your life, Virgo. You've been wanting just this opportunity to do the right thing for a long time.

Libra

Seven of Swords

There's deception all around you, someone is being highly untrustworthy, and it's likely that the situation will turn into a full-blown betrayal. You're going to need to keep your wits about you and be cunning about discovering the truth of it all, Libra. As you sort things out, follow your instincts. If a situation feels sketchy or something makes you feel on edge, listen to your instincts. Don't be tempted to give yourself a hard time for not seeing the deception. Center your morality when plotting a course forward.

Scorpio

You haven't been able to make things happen - whether it's creating something or planning something. You're not feeling like your best self and find yourself being non committal - and that's not like you, Scorpio. You're procrastinating, even in your creative endeavors. You feel disconnected, especially from your creative side, and that has left you feeling drained and unfocused where normally you'd be determined and dependable. This malaise is also impacting a new opportunity you know you should be excited about and need to be taking advantage of. Focus on what you can do today that could possibly lead to your dreams.

Sagittarius

The Hanged Man, Reversed

Getting a different perspective on things is going to be vital, but make sure that you are allowing yourself an intentional pause and not stalling due to indecision, Sagittarius. Use the time you are being given to embrace perspective. Is there something you are holding on to that you no longer need? Don't cling on to past narratives. Let go of your self doubt and fears of stagnation. Moving forward often requires sacrifice and surrendering to the unknown. It isn't always easy, or comfortable, but it's necessary.

Capricorn

8 of Wands, Reversed

You know that you need to get going, but you don't feel quite ready, Capricorn. You feel unfocused, you've faced far too many recent delays, and you're not feeling as stable as you did when you first came into this situation. The delays and miscommunications have left you feeling disconnected and uninspired. Don't panic! The time tables you're working within aren't set in stone and the delays won't last forever. Once they're cleared, things will move fast! Use the additional time you have now to get ready to move!

Aquarius

Ace of Wands

You are bursting with creative energy, Aquarius, and the passion and enthusiasm you're feeling is illuminating your inner world. You've learned about yourself through your craft, and the feeling of boundless creative fire has made you excited to get started on some new creative endeavors. You have used your creativity to construct a more meaningful inner life for yourself. This new burst of energy has the potential to have a huge impact on you. There's so much you're excited to create, and this is an amazing opportunity for you to do just that!

Pisces

Queen of Swords, Reversed

Your honest, clear-headed assessments can be unbiased and exceptionally astute when you're at your best, Pisces - but you're not at your best. You've been facing a lot of challenges and it has muddled your perspective. Instead of being clear-headed you're narrow minded and instead of being unbiased you're being overly critical - especially when it comes to yourself. Be as gentle and kind with yourself as you would be to others. You have great wisdom within you and if you feel yourself getting too self-critical or imbalanced, use your gratitude as a guide.
