INTO THE INFINITE (ANTHEM)
by Ike Harmon

*We all hope there is something
Beyond within
A song of the spirit
About to begin*

*As our eyes open
As twilight fades
We see all the colors
And all of the shades*

*We are nations of stardust
Borne on the wind
Cast on the water
To scatter again*

*We are truth in the making
And hope on the mend
An unbroken people
About to ascend*

*We are in . . .
We are in . . .
Together again
Into the Infinite*

*We all hope there is something
Beyond within
A song of the spirit
About to begin*

*We are in . . .
We are in . . .
Together again
Into the Infinite*

*We are truth in the making
And hope on the mend
An unbroken people
About to ascend*

*We are in . . .
We are in . . .
Together again
Into the Infinite*
