

Friends Who Come to Visit You

- How often do your friends come to visit you?

It depends. I have friends who	live nearby	we visit each other quite often, sometimes even every day.
	live far away	I see them on holidays when either I or they come to visit. Sometimes even once a year.

- What do you like more: to visit your friends or when they come to visit you?

I like	both	because	the place doesn't matter. The company does.
I prefer	to visit my friends		my house is overcrowded and my younger siblings always interfere.
	when they come to me		I have plenty of space just for myself.

- Where would you take a friend who came to visit you? Explain.

If it's a friend who comes from afar I would take him to visit	Jerusalem	because	it's a place	where you can	enjoy water sports.
	Haifa				visit archeological sites.
	Eilat				have lots of fun all day round.
	Tel Aviv				finger-touch the world's history.
	Tiberius				visit art galleries and museums.
	Caesarea		it's a national park		improve your health.
	The Dead Sea				have a unique spiritual experience.
	Masada				see hoe colorful and diverse Israel is.
	Ein Gedi				enjoy true Israel hospitality.
	Hula Valley		it's a nature reserve		enjoy spectacular views.
	Jordan Valley				see rear birds and animals
	Mount Meron				have an unforgettable experience.
If it's a friend who comes often we would go	to the mall		that's what we usually do.
	to the movies		we like to hang out there.
	to a restaurant		that's how we usually spend our time together when we go out.

- Which one of your family celebrations would be the most interesting for your friend to see? Explain and give an example.

I think the family celebration that would be the most interesting for my friends to see is	Rosh-ha-Shana	because	I have a big extended family and our gatherings are extraordinary.	For example,	we always sing and dance when we get together.
	Succoth
	Hanukkah
	Purim
	Pesach
	the Independence Day		that's the time when we have our famous barbeque and make huge bonfire		the food my family prepares is one of a lifetime experience nobody would like to miss.
	Lag-Ba-Omer
	Shavuot
	Christmas
	Halloween
	Passover
	Ramadan
	Eid al Fitr		our traditions are unique and my friends will surely be interested to be part of this celebration		when my family gets together the stories they tell are very interesting.
					my siblings and cousins always think of some interesting game or other and we always have lots of fun together.
